Hi Warren,

WB> AJB> There is a large PARK/PARKS/PARKES/PARKE Society
WB> Yes Anna I am interested in the Society. Would you

Here's the latest on the society.

Membership: Mrs. Marjorie C. Isaac
202 Meadowbrook Drive
Clarks Summit, PA 18411

Application fee (one time) 15.00
Annual Dues 15.00
Life Membership 150.00
US funds

Editor: David L. Parke (he's stepping down and a new editor is due for 1996)

Three issues per year of the Newsletter of the Parke Society.

1996 Convocation Sept 5-8 will be in Bu a Vista, Florida
199 Convocation will be in the San Francisco area.

Many Canadian lines of PARKE are regularily featured; my cousin Cora Reid is the lineage director for the Canadian branches (Cyrenius) of Parke. She keeps them up-to-date with known Parke burials, and the last issue of the Newsletter featured her "Park/e/s/ Land Sales in Ontario 1789-1920". There is a similar lineage director for many specific lines, and the society's regions of North America.
Several married-into lines have been part of the 'Ancestral Safari" medieval feature articles which appear often in the Newsletter, such as the ancestors of Alice FREEMAN. Other articles have been done on the searches for the origins in England, etc. for our immigrant ancestors.

This society is the only one, apart from the UEL Assoc. with which I have kept my membership current for over twenty years. That says something, eh? :)

Ralph Grimmer said he has a copy of the Gen-Book software for review if anyone is interested. Tom Harp recommended a DOS video at the library as very useful for computer users.

President Tom Harp asked for a volunteer to be the Chairperson for the Nominating Committee. Please call Tom to volunteer.

Virginia Comstock had a recommendation from Curtis Peet that we subscribe to a magazine titled, Genealogical Computing . She had a copy for people to review and we will vote on this next month. Subscription rate is $25 per year.

Program: Jan Dreiling presented observations and photographs on her recent trip to Scotland.

She was able to combine traditional sightseeing with genealogical research. Several books she purchased in Scotland were on display; The Surnames of Scotland by George Black was a very interesting book and several people expressed an interest in obtaining a copy for the library.

Jan's research interest centered on her Park family ancestors. One family find before her trip was a diary written between 1852 and the 1870's which described two generations of her father's family and included the period of migration from Scotland to America.

She visited the villages where her great grandfather migrated from and where he was born. One exciting landmark she discovered was Castle Park. A fortified home of most unusual construction dating from 1590. She met some probable distant Park relatives from England who were staying in the Castle at the time (it's for rent!).

Most of Jan and her daughter's adventures were on the Hebrides Islands on the western coast of Scotland. They visited a number of ancient stone circles and old castles. Her best genealogical discovery was the original spelling of the Park name as Pairc. She found this as the Clan Donald Center on the Isle of Skye. The Pairc family is associated with the Donald Clan. She discovered that the Pairc family was originally from the northern most islands of Harris and Lewis, so the trip headed that way.

The scenery she described and the old historic building and sites were wonderful and we all enjoyed her descriptions and her photographs. Jan gave an excellent example of how research interests can chart the course of travel. They didn't make it to the cities and main tourist attractions of Scotland, but they saw beautiful and meaningful parts of Scotland most visitors ignore or speed through.

Jan's summary statement best tells the success of her trip. She felt she was " stepping into the past where my people came from".

BARTLESVILLE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
NEWSLETTER

March 13, 1995

The question and answer session will be held at 7PM for anyone with problems in their genealogical research.

Program: Sarah Cottle will discuss travel in America in the period from 1840 to 1860 based on family diaries.

Treasurer's Report

January balance	$1248.27
Income	408.00
Expenses	413.34
February balance	$1241.93

There are 93 paid members for 1995. This is the last newsletter if you have not renewed your dues.

Virginia Comstock showed two new books recently purchased by the Society for the library. 30,638 Burials in Georgia and Irish Passenger Lists 1803-1806. Virginia announced that our collection of mayflower Families books now includes volumes 1 through 6 in the library; 4, 5 and 6 are new.

Bob Bouton inquired about how many people would be interested in having a session on German Heritage included as all or part of the fall workshop. A number of people indicated an interest in a session as part of the workshop.

Tom Harp brought up the question of a Spring Book Sharing Workshop. Jay Lamb has volunteered to chair this workshop. We voted to try for a Saturday in April. This is an informal workshop for members and anyone who wishes to attend to share books and information, Friday evening is usually reserved for members and Saturday is advertised for the public as well. Everyone who has books to share needs to bring them. Please be sure your name is in each book and bring a list of the books you bring. The date will be announced.

Margaret Harp had a number of letters announcing workshops and requesting information on local families. These were placed on a table for everyone to read. Included: Newsletter from the Oklahoma Historical Society; letters on the White, Simpson, Thomas, Maynard, Hydorn, and Evans families of Nowata County; an advertisement for Gen-Book software which converts PAF files to a book.

If you receive a reply from a Kentucky county courthouse saying that the records you are seeking are "missing" try writing to the Kentucky Archives in Frankfort. While some records are missing, many have been moved to the Archives because the local courthouses do not have the space or the facilities for the records. Many records have been microfilmed.

With changes in County Clerks, the present clerk may not be aware that those records have been moved to Frankfort. Write: Kentucky Dept. of Library and Archives, 300 Coffee Tree Rd., PO Box 537, Frankfort, KY 40602 when courthouses are unable to locate the records you needs. (California Archives have similar situations as probably do other states).

Kentucky State Archives Research Room

Conditions of Use

Researchers visiting the Archives Research Room must present proper identification, complete a registration form, and agree to adhere to Public Records Division rules for use of materials. Most personal belongings, such as purses, briefcases, and coats must be stored in lockers provided for patron use, and may not be taken into the Research Room.

Once inside the Research Room, the researcher will be introduced to finding aids and procedures by a staff person. All materials must be used within the Research Room. Records are available in accordance with policy. Restrictions on the use of some materials have been imposed due to confidentiality statutes or for document preservation. Guidelines concerning the use of confidential records will be furnished on request.

All personal property, including notebooks, notes, and photocopies must be submitted for inspection before being removed from the Archives Research Room.

Printed with State Funds

The Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age or disability in employment or the provision of services.

Copies of this brochure are available on audiocassette upon request.

Welcome to the Kentucky State Archives

The Kentucky State Archives is the central repository for the permanent public records of Kentucky state government and many of the Commonwealth's local governments and judicial offices. The collection of private materials is generally left to other repositories. Holdings consist of approximately 95,000 cubic feet of original materials and 45,000 rolls of microfilm.

The Archives Research Room, located on the first floor of the Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives building, provides access to these archival resources, as well as to state government agency publications, county histories, maps, newspapers, microfilmed federal records, and other materials relevant to the Commonwealth's past and present. The holdings of the Kentucky Genealogical Society, consisting primarily of family files and genealogical publications, are also available in the Archives Research Room.

A separate leaflet describing our resources is available upon request.

Archives Research Room Services

Hours

The Research Room is open Tuesday through Saturday, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The Research Room is closed on all state holidays and on Saturdays immediately preceding or following state holidays.

Guides and Finding Aids

Finding aids to the Archives' organized collections are available in the Research Room. A Guide to the Holdings of the Kentucky State Archives contains information on the scope, content, and organization of state and local government records holdings. There are also finding aids for publications produced by Kentucky state government agencies and for federal records and other microfilmed holdings of the division.

A price list of the Public Records Division's publications, including inventories and other guides, is available. Unpublished finding aids may be photocopied for a fee.

Interlibrary Loan

The Archives is a reference and research facility and does not lend its material. Federal census population schedules for Kentucky are available on interlibrary loan through public libraries and the Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives' State Library Services Division.

Reference Service

The staff provides very limited reference service on State Archives collections, in person or by correspondence. Mail inquiries must include the specific type of record requested, the county or agency of origin, name to be searched, and approximate date.

Research Room staff does not perform detailed research for individual patrons. A list of persons willing to do research for a fee is available on request.

Photoduplication

Subject to preservation and copyright restrictions, copies of records are available in photocopy and microfilm. A photocopier and several microprinters are located in the Research Room for public use. Original archival material, however, must be copied by the staff.

Copy requests in excess of 25 pages will be filled as staff time allows, usually within four weeks of a request. Researchers may be required to accept microfilm copies of records if original documents are too fragile or too voluminous to photocopy. Duplication policies and costs are available from the Research Room on request.

Other Services

The availability of many records, particularly those of local governments, varies greatly. Out-of-town researchers should contact the Archives Research Room before visiting to determine if needed materials are on hand.

Please address inquiries to: Archives Research Room, Public Records Division, Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives, P.O. Box 537, Frankfort, KY 40602-0537, or telephone (502) 875-7000.

Henry County, Missouri Recorded in Book 1 at Pages 474 &475.
Acquired copy from the Henry County History Museum, Clinton, Missouri #2624

State of Missouri, County of Henry, In vacation of Probate Court
Be it remembered that on the 10th day of November A.D. 1893 personally appeared before the undersigned James Parks, Judge and Exofficio Clerk of the Probate Court in and for the County of Henry in the State of Missouri, James W. Pigg and John L. Parks, the subscribing witnesses to the annexed Will of Laban Parks, deceased, and being by we first duly sworn, depose and say, that the said Laban Parks, the testator, subscribed the same in their presence, and published the said will or instrument of writing as his last will; that he, the said testator, was, at the time of publishing his said will, of sound mind, and more than twenty-one years of age, and that they, the said deponents, attested the said will as witnesses thereto, by subscribing their names to the same, in the presence of said testator and at his request and in the presence of each other.
Signed John L. Parks James W. Pigg
Subscribed and sworn to before ??? this 19th day of November 1893 James Parks Probate Judge

I, Laban Parks, of the county of Henry in the State of Missouri, do make, publish, and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner following, to wit:

First. I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary Elizabeth Parks, all of my estate, real and personal and mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or in which I shall have any right or interest at the time of my death. To be held however by her in trust for the following purposes, To wit:

First, For the Payment of all just demands or claims against my Estate, included my funeral expenses.
Second, For the support and maintenance of my said wife, Mary Elizabeth Parks, for and during her natural life in a manner suitable to her condition and station in life.
Third, For the Education of my son, Marvin Peyton Parks, and his support and maintenance until he arrives at the age of his majority.

Second. I hereby give to my said wife, Mary Elizabeth Parks, full authority and power to manage and control all of my said Estate in such way and manner as in her judgement she may deem best for her interest and the interest of the three children, Martha Almira Logan, Susan Ellen Logan, and Marvin Peyton Parks.

Third. All of my Estate, real, personal and mixed, remaining undisposed of by my said wife for the purposes here in before stated, at her death, I give devise and bequeath to my said three children, Martha Almira Logan, Susan Ellen Logan and Marvin Peyton Parks, to take equally divided between then, share and share alike, but in the event that either of my said children shall die without issue, there it is my will that the share of such child so dying without issue, shall go to the and be equally divided between the survivors of my said children.

Fourth. I hereby, authorize and empower my said wife, if in her judgment she shall believe it best and for the interest of herself and all of my said children to sell such portion of my real estate as may not be required for the specified purposes herein before stated, divide the proceeds of such sale or sales, equally between my said children after retaining such portion of said proceeds, as she may deem necessary for her own support and maintenance, if any, and to make deeds of conveyance to the purchasers thereof, and it is my will and intention that nothing contained in this will be construed as in anywise affecting or limiting the poser of said wife under this clause of this will.

Fifth. It is my will, and I hereby empower and authorize my said wife, Mary Elizabeth Parks, to collect all debts and claims of every kind due and owing to me at my death, and to adjust, settle and pay all just demands against my estate of whatsoever character without administration on my estate and without having said demands allowed against my estate.
and that she be not required to give bond for the discharge of her duties under this will. In testimony whereof, I have here unto signed my name and affixed my seal.

Dear Sir:

I am researching my family tree and am looking for some records from your county., Is it possible that there is a death certificate on file for John P. Turner, born Bourbon County, Kentucky, 18 Dec. 1821, died Henry County about 1884? or perhaps later?
His wife, Rosa Jane Parks Turner, died November 1874.
Her mother Nancy Parks or her father Reuben Parks, died 5 Aug. 1842 or 1845.
I am enclosing a check for $4.00, if this is insufficient, please bill me. Thank you for your help.

Dear Sir:

I am researching my family tree and am looking for some records from your county., Is it possible that there is a death certificate on file for John P. Turner, born Bourbon County, Kentucky, 18 Dec. 1821, died Henry County about 1884? or perhaps later?
His wife, Rosa Jane Parks Turner, died November 1874.
Her mother Nancy Parks or her father Reuben Parks, died 5 Aug. 1842 or 1845.
I am enclosing a check for $4.00, if this is insufficient, please bill me. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of the 15th. I will send you what information I've come up with.

Parks Chapel Cemetary is located in Township 41 - Range 24 - Section 34 of Henry Co. Missouri. This is 1½ miles southwest of Tightwad, Mo. and aprox. five miles southwest of Leesville Mo.

There isn't any record of who is buried in this cemetary, but there is a record of the ones that bought lots there. This shows a J.P. Turner owning lots 13 & 14 in Row 6.

I'm sending two pictures, (which are very poor because of old film) but they will give you some idea of what I'm talking about.

This is probably the one of who you mention

There isn't any headstones for John or Rebca Turner -

There is plenty of room between #2 + #3 for them. #3 is their daughter. Also there is room between 3+4 and between 4+5.

I have never heard mention of a Richard W Mullis.

Hope this helps you in your search for information

Dear Mrs. Logan:

We are re earching my Turner Family and I am looking for the cemetery where my Great Grandfather, John Parks Turner, born 18 December 1821 and died August 1875, is said to be buried in Leesville area. In 1844 he married Rosa Jane Parks, she died November 1874, daughter of Reuben Parks. There were several children, who died young. Other children were Nancy B. and Perez.

I wrote the Consalus Funeral Home in Clinton for help and they suggested I write you.

We are also looking for the burial place of Richard W. Mullis.

Thank you for your help. Looking forward to hearing from you - - - - -

To Whom It May Concern:

I am researching my Family and am needing help in finding where my Great Grandfather, John Parks Turner is buried. He died in August 1895 and was said to be buried in the Leesville area of Henry County. In 1844 he married Rosa Jane Parks (she died November 1874) daughter of Reuben Parks. There were several children of this marriage who died young. Other children were Nancy B. and Perez.

Could you please search your records for any Turner relatives Or do you have a geneal ical society in the County.

Would you please send me a list of Cemeteries for the Leesville and Coal area and who are the caretakers for each cemetery. I will certainly appreciate your help.

Sincerely,
Jack Fulton

CHET AND RUBY PARSCALE

Chet Parscale was born at Buffalo, Missouri, September 12, 1911. At the age of three he moved to Deepwater where he attended grade and high school. He worked at the Dickey Tile Plant for 22 years and in 1954 Chet became a part of the Deepwater Postal Service. In 1942, he became assistant Scout Master under Bill Stewart, later he was Cub Master to the first Cub Scout Troop in Deepwater. He was Scout Master until 1960 and served as secretary for Youth For Christ. Chet was an active member of the Methodist Church.

On September 12, 1964, he was united in marriage to Ruby LaGore. Ruby was born in Bosworth, Mo., March 24, 1914. She moved from Rockville, Mo. with her mother and step-father, Ace and Maggie DeLozier, the spring of 1923. Ruby attended Fairview School. She lived and worked in Odessa, Texas for 23 years returning to Deepwater in 1964.

In 1972 Chet and Ruby were transfered to Jerico Springs, Mo., where he served as Postmaster for eight years. Chet retired in May 1980. The Parscales belong to the Christian Church where Chet is a Deacon. He is a member of the Lion's Club, a Master Mason, and they both belong to the Order of the Eastern Star. Ruby was District Deputy Grand Matron of the 42nd District in 1983-84. She belongs to the Jerico Springs Community Club and the Good Neighbor Club.

The Parscales have bought a home in Jerico Springs but they still have many ties in Deepwater.

JESSE M. PARSCALE FAMILY

Jesse M. Parscale, son of James D. Parscale and Nancy Elizabeth Hawkins was born December 20, 1890 near Branson, Mo. He grew up in Buffalo, Mo. area, where he met and married Iva Mayfield.

Moving to Brownington in 1914 he went to work for Dickey Clay Plant No. 2 where he was a house foreman for over 10 years. In 1915 he walked to and from work, worked 10 to 15 hours a day at 16½ cents per hour. He worked for Dickey for 35 years. Later at Tile factory.

They, along with baby Dorothy (born in Brownington), moved to Deepwater in the fall of 1915. Orpha, Jay and James were born in Deepwater.

Iva passed away in 1923. He and the children lived with his parents until June 1925 when he and Bessie Weaver were married. They reared her two daughters, Jessie and Lucille, and his children in Brownington. Depression years were difficult years.

During the war years, both boys in the service, and girls married, Jesse and Bessie went to Kansas City where he worked at Pratt Whitney. Later years, back in Brownington, he worked at Moores Drugstore, did some carpentry, mowed yards, served on the town council and was mayor for sometime. They worked in the Baptist Church where he was a deacon.

Bessie and Jesse Parscale, 50th Wedding Anniversary, 1975.

After the government bought their home they moved to Deepwater, where they celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 10, 1975. He passed away on May 14, 1976 of a massive heart attack. Dorothy, Lucille and James preceded him in death. James a month prior to his Father's death.

Jesse's wife still resides in Deepwater. Her daughter, Jessie lives with her.

THE WALTER AND LEOTA OSBURN FAMILY

My parents, Shapley and Juliette Catherine Yosti moved to Deepwater in the year 1900. I was born in June 1901. They named me Ethel Leota.

I grew up in this nice little town, graduating from high school in May 1921. I loved music and had many happy times playing piano and singing in The Billy Smith Orchestra.

May 4, 1924, Walter Judson Osburn and I were married. In February 1925, our daughter Catherine Rose was born.

We moved many times but finally settled in Burbank, California where our daughter graduated from high school. In May 1944 our daughter and Norman Elias Caleel were married and established their home in Burbank, California.

My father passed away in December 1947 at the age of 84 years. My mother then came to make her home with use until her death in November 1964 at the age of 96 years.

Billy Smith's Orchestra - Floyd Glass, trumpet and leader; Tom Daugherty, trombone; Frances Downing, saxophone; Leota Osburn, piano; Ruth Burch, violin; Billy Smith, drums.

Catherine and Norman gave us three lovely granddaughters, Christine Ann, Leota Mary and Elizabeth Jean. Christine and her husband Craig Curtis live in Palos Verde Estates, California; Leota and her husband Victor Garcia, and Liz and her husband Roy Duffer all live in Burbank, California.

In December 1965, my husband Walter passed away. We buried him not far from my mother in lovely Forest Lawn Cemetery, Hollywood Hills.

Now I live alone but keep busy doing many interesting things. I have my family near, my church and circle. I also work in Red Cross. Walter's sisters and their families are not far away and I see them often.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Parks, Near Tightwad, Celebrate Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Parks, who live 1½ miles southwest of Tightwad, celebrated the passing of their 50th milestone along the road of life together with open house Tuesday of last week. Friends and relatives came, voicing many expressions of congratulations and the best of wishes to this happy, congenial couple who are so beloved by those of their community. The table at which dinner was served Tuesday noon was covered with a linen cloth and centered with a flower vase which were given the bride at her marriage a half a century ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks have lived in Henry county all their lives, most of the time in the community where their home is now located. They grew up in the Tightwad community, Harry Holland Parks, born July 20, 1857, in Henry county, and Jessie Yantis Slavens, born September 29, 1867, also in Henry county. They were playmates and young friends, then one day he was a grown young man, coming in his sleigh to take her, a charming young woman to a dance. That was the beginning of their courtship which culminated in their marriage.

The wedding took place at 2 p. m. December 31, 1885, a lovely day with the sun beaming warmly as if foretelling the sunshine that was to fill their lives together. Rev. John Yeuliman read the ceremony at the home of "Aunt Susan" Parks, who had reared the bride from the time of the death of the girl's mother when she was small. That night was spent at the Parks' home and the next day the young couple went to the home of his uncle, Laban Parks, where they were given an infair dinner and charivari that night.

The bride's dress was high necked, long sleeved and made long with an over skirt. A wide ribbon sash about her waist tied at one side.

The first home of Mr. and Mrs. Parks was on the farm where she was reared and he took over the management of the place. He is also an expert carpenter and during their married life he has built three houses which they lived in and later sold. They have been at their present home the last 21 years.

They have two children, Ray Parks and Mrs. Ruth Pierce, both of Tightwad.

Mrs. Parks' hobby is flowers and fancywork and she has taken many premiums on the latter at county fairs. Both like to read, preferring any kind of good literature. Both belong to the Universalist church. They are a happy, congenial couple, considerate of each other and contented with the happiness they have found together. He is jolly and good natured and she is always busy with her housekeeping, for her home is always clean and shining. Both enjoy good health and appreciate visiting their many friends.

The open house in observance of this 50th anniversary was attended by many relatives and friends, among whom were C. S. Slavens and Mrs. Frank Brown, both east of Clinton, who were among the guests at the wedding.

WPA SEWING ROOM

The Clinton Sewing Center started its third month of work Monday with the same number and same women employed as at the outset of the work. The women are making blue work shirts for men, also uniforms which are to be worn in the sewing room. These uniforms are being made of pink flowered print, trimmed in white, all of which material is furnished by the government and remains the property of the WPA sewing center. Colored workers will have uniforms of lavender print, white trimmed. The women received their fourth checks last Saturday as they are paid twice a month.

DEATH OF LADUE MAN

The last summons came to Edward C. Turk at his home in La-Due Christmas day, bringing to an end the failing health with which he had suffered several years. He was always active and busy until his health became so impaired he was no longer able to continue with his work, so he retired and everything was done that could be with the kind administrations of his faithful wife, who tenderly cared for him until the end with the help of other loved ones and friends.

Edward Carrington Turk, son of Dr. J. G. and Ann Flowers Turk, was born in Milltown, Adair county, Kentucky, July 23, 1859. He

Mrs. Parks is an excellent omemaker and a superior cook nd delights in doing her house- ork. Both she and Mr. Parks re members of the Christian hurch and were active members f this church at Leesville as long s it was maintained there.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks have had even children, of whom two are living: Mrs. M. M. Hill, Deepwa- er; Mrs. Claud Snider, Denver, Colo. They also have ten grand- children and two great grandchildren. They took a granddaughter Miss Thelma Faye Evans, whose mother died when Miss Thelma Faye was about a year and a half old, into their home and have given her the same care and excellent rearing that they gave their children.

Those at the dinner Friday were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Frala and daughter, Aileen, Deepwater; Mrs. Geo. Beard and son, and Mrs. Aileen Jones, Leesville; Mrs. Roy Parks, who, with her husband, live with Mr. and Mrs. Parks; Miss Thelma Faye Evans and the honorees.

—J. W. Higdon, 307 South Fifth street, has received the sad news that his mother, Mrs. Phillip Ritchey, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Chapman, of Anderson, Mo., after an illness of about four weeks with infirmatives of old age. She celebrated her 95th birthday last July 27. Deceased lived east of Clinton many years ago and was the sister of the late Wesley Holland. She visited here about three years ago. Her first husband, Jim Higdon, died during the Civil War and she later married Phillip Ritchey who died in 1929 and she has since made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Chapman. She is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Pearl Anderson of Arkansas and three sons J. W. Hidgon, Clinton; Chas. Ritchey, of Joplin, and T. Ritchey, Neosha. Two nephews, John and Bird Holland, live east of Clinton and a niece, Mrs. Fannie Merie, at Lowry City.

SAMUEL PARK DIED

At his home three miles west of Warsaw on Highway 18 last Sunday about 6 p. m. after a lingering illness of several months.

Deceased, born near Mt. Zion, Henry County, August 22, 1872, was married to Ettie Meacham, November 4, 1894. To their union were born six children. Those living are Mrs. Ruth Holland and Mrs. Lucy Shelton of Wapato, Washington; Mrs. Katie Graham of Appleton City; and Harley Park of Deepwater. He is also survived by four brothers, Geo. and Milo of Mt. Zion, Overton of Ponca City, Okla., and Noah of Tulsa, Okla., and one sister, Mrs. Carrie Edwards of Mt. Zion; also three half brothers, John Holland and Chally Park of Lowry City and David Park of Ohio P. O. and five half sisters, Mesdames Mollie Foster, Mattie Park, Cimantha Bunch and Hannah Terral of Lowry City vicinity and Mrs. Mary Stewart of Deepwater, and seven grandchildren.

At an early age, he confessed his faith in Christ and united with the Park Grove Christian church in St. Clair county. Until just a few years ago, he was in business in Deepwater until he moved to Benton county where he died March 8 at the age of 63 years, 6 months and 16 days.

When a wee lad people would often give Mr. Park pennies for candy but he always bought nails to build something. So at a very early age he chose to be a carpenter and was always happiest when following this vocation. Many fine homes stand today in Henry and Benton Counties and in the states of Washington and Oregon, showing his skill as a mason, carpenter and interior decorator. For his brother, Noah, he was completing his third modern home, at his death. Many homes in Clinton and Grandview of this state have antiques repaired by this good man.

Most of Mr. Park's life was spent in Henry County but several years were spent in Oregon and Washington. In these states his children were born and spent their early childhood. He gave to them a rich heritage of honesty, broadmindedness and faith in the Lord. He ever taught life's finest lesson, to love one's neighbor as himself.

His funeral services were conducted at the Park Grove Christian church March 9 at 2 p. m. by Rev. H. E. Carpenter of Calhoun. The music was provided by a chorus composed of Mesdames Blanche Chiles, Mary Catley and W. E. Carter, Misses Dorothy Chiles, and Mary Beth Catley with Mrs. Geo. Hillegas at the piano. Acting pallbearers were: John Park, Wm. Bunch, Orla Park, Zara Park, Lester Jackson, Winn Gilkey and Murrel Richmond. The casket, covered with beautiful floral offerings, spoke silently of the high esteem in which he was held by those who knew him best. Following the rites at the church, his body was laid among his relatives and friends of many years in the Park cemetery.

A special feature of the service was that his funeral sermon was preached from a pulpit that he made with his own hands years ago and gave to the church, and the seats of the church were marked off by him. He also drew the plan of the building and built the furniture in it, and the altar at the Deepwater Presbyterian church was also made by him.

The family has many friends who share with them in their grief.

CHAS. A. HENDRICK DEAD

Chas. A. Hendrick, prominent farmer and beloved resident of the Cornett neighborhood, northeast of Urich, came to the end of his earthly journey about 11 a. m. Monday, March 16, at his home. Always a vital and healthy man, Mr. Hendrick had suffered few illnesses in his life, but the last week of his life he was intensely ill with pneumonia and heart trouble, so that death brought had he came with his parents to LaDue where they settled on a nearby farm. Mr. West learned the trade of a barber as a young man and spent all of his life at or near his boyhood home.

Mr. West was married to Miss Jennie Branch of LaDue, who a few years later died when their only son, Clarence, was a little lad about three years of age. They were residents of Butler at the time. About 1895 he married Miss Louie Gibson of Butler, who made a kind and good mother for his boy and was a loyal helpmeet to her husband. They returned to LaDue to make their home.

Mr West was converted and baptized by Rev. Wade Johnson and enjoyed regular church attendance as long as his health permitted. He was also a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge when that brotherhood was active in LaDue.

Mr. West was a man of genial, happy disposition, who had many friends and was beloved by the boys of his acquaintance, especially those whose hair he cut, for the heart of the boy was ever alive in his breast. He always took delight in his early garden and the Friday before his death was out seeing about getting the ground ready for planting. He loved flowers and grew many beautiful ones. He liked to read, thinking it a real deprivation if he missed the daily paper.

His son, Clarence, of Joplin and ten grandchildren survive Mr. West, likewise one brother, Bud West of Clinton and one sister, Mrs. Laura B. Lawson, of LaDue.

The funeral services, conducted by the Wilkinson service, were at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday at the Christian church, LaDue, and the funeral address was made by Wilbur Gutridge, one of Mr. West's close friends. Fine selections were sung their wounds and cheering them over life's difficulties. She was an immaculate housekeeper. When her son came to make his home with her, she delighted in giving him all of life's comforts, surrounding him with a sublime love and understanding.

She drew many to her home, where friends found an ever ready humor to lighten a wearisome burden, and a rare understanding, to comfort and guide. Her home was kept lighted with a steadily burning love as she daily followed in the path of her Saviour, to Whose arms death bore her spirit. She knew her constitution, stronger than many, was but physical, and made ready her soul for its flight, as she daily carried out her home tasks.

Her Kentucky parents were of the pioneering type who had firm belief in the family altar and prayer. Thus from early childhood she learned to trust and follow the Saviour.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:00 p. m. Thursday (today) at the home, by Rev. A. S. Olsen. Burial at Blairstown.

If A. H. McQueen had appeared at the Clinton Eye April 1 and asked if we wanted to exhibit a luscious green watermelon, we would have thought he was making us the butt of an April fool joke. But he waited until Friday, April 2 to appear, saying he had one out in the car. "We're from Missouri, you'll have to show us so he put a Very healthful, flavor pleases and how. Never eat them too late to be tasty. Cultivated same as other watermelons. The fact that this was a winter watermelon is because it survived the drouth and ripened after other melons were gone—if cultivated properly this melon might be grown the year round—seeds 10c each or $1.00 per dozen."

MR. AND MRS. W. P. PARKS WERE WED 60 YEARS AGO

Leesville Couple Celebrate Wedding Anniversary Quietly—Mr. Parks Has Owned and Operated a Saw Mill 56 Years

Mr. and Mrs. William Peyton Parks, well-known couple of Leesville township, where they have lived the past 12 years, passed the 60th milestone of their wedded life March 20. Mr. Parks has owned and operated a saw mill 56 years, in that section of the land for many years, also in Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado, where his honest dealings with all made friends of his customers. Their wedding anniversary this year was celebrated quietly with a dinner attended by Messrs. and Mesdames H. H. Parks, Roy Parks, M. M. Hill, also Pat Logan and Junior Beard, as these two delightful people were not yet recovered n having the flu.

hroughout the years that now
m short, Mr. and Mrs. Parks
where they have lived better their honest and Christian life.
. Parks has gone constantly
h her husband, and together
y shared life's joys and sors, and together are passing ough their sunset years, facing he thread of Mr. Parks' life, ich has been interwoven with lives of many, was started y 6, 1853, in Calhoun, where in early days he tasted the rav-s of the Civil War and still res the night that bushwhackers bed his father's store at Cal-

n and, taking a straw mattress m his mother, set fire to the ater the life thread was inter-ven with Clintonians during his t schooling, the highest learn-of which was the completion the sixth reader, and a bit of tory. Back to Calhoun the ead took him, to attend the ademy there. It was a frame lding with a large main room

two smaller ones for cloaks lunch boxes. The students,
o came for five or six miles und, walking and riding, stayed the large room, studying at ks with wooden seats, and re-ng at the front of the room, ng slates instead of the note-ks of today. There were usly 40 or 50 pupils and two men
chers, sometimes one teacher, strict surveillance was always t! The academy instructors re required to have training, ich they must needs get outside state, but this extra training
s not necessary for rural school chers.

fter two years at the academy
. Parks went east and began rking on a railroad, where one his "lay-offs" was at Green-d, Ohio, and there, attending a rch social, he met charming ss Delia A. Ford, born there tober 14, 1856, and whose comy he looked forward to from e to time. They attended rch together, joined in the mersocials and sleigh rides in win-
. After the first snow, Mr.
ks related, travel was done on-by sleighs or bob-sleds, to the e of tinkling bells.

Snow still covered the ground on rch 20, 1877, and the day was ar and cold when Rev. M. Kemp, ristian minister, united the lives
Miss Ford and Mr. Parks, their threads to be interwoven as during the rest of their years.
e ceremony was at the home of bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. lliam Ford, at 8:00 p. m. They ained there that night and t day Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon, h whom Mr. Parks stayed, gave m a dinner. Of that congenial up of witnesses of the wedding
one is living, L. M. Ford at Maud, Okla., a brother of the bride. Mrs. Parks wore a white Swiss ruffle trimmed dress which reached her ankles, and her soft kid shoes were laced on the inside.

They made Ohio their home for a few years, then, at the request of his wife, Mr. Parks resigned his position of engineer on the railroad, and they came to Calhoun, where he started a sawmill, which was placed at a particular spot and logs were hauled to it. He located in timber, and as he gradually reached further out for trees, he would "snake" them to the mill with sturdy teams. The head blocks which governed the size of boards being sawed was called a screw set, and were adjusted by hand, while his present saw is equipped with levers. He liked his work, and although dangerous, never feared it. He employed four men besides himself, and remembers furnishing the posts and boards to make the hitch-rack that used to be on the west side square, and after these decayed and fell, he sawed the lumber to replace them.

He used to saw by contracts, such a one taking him, accompanied by his loyal wife, to the Indian territory, now Oklahoma, where notorious characters lived. There were acres of cotton-wood trees along the Canadian river, one particular tract owned by an Indian known as "Johnny Kiddels." Mr. Parks let him have enough lumber already sawed to make a two-room cabin for the Indian's son-in-law, the value to be taken out by Mr. Parks sawing trees from the Indian's tract. The exchange completed, Mr. Parks explained when he had the sufficient amount, and wished to bargain for the remainder. As was characteristic with friends, the Indian said, "No, all yours, you take 'um."

Mr. and Mrs. Parks came back to Henry County in about seven years where he filled the largest order for any man here, that of 4,000 feet, for the late H. P. Faris, the trees felled on the Faris ranch at Finey. Mr. Parks also supplied lumber for a large railroad bridge at Lewis Station, which called for boards a foot square and 24 feet long, and he says it would be impossible to replace those dimensions now, if the bridges were not of steel. He used to saw walnut logs from Henry and Benton Counties and at one time shipped two carloads of it to make gun stocks. This kind of lumber, if not put on the market within two years after sawed, loses some of its value, as the ends check and color changes. Mr. Parks soon after moved his saw mill to Leesville where it has been the past 12 years, but he says he wants to sell out, as he is physically unable to keep the saw "dressed up in shape" and that, after all, is the most important part.

Seven children blessed the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Parks, two of whom are living to surround with love their parents' steps down the declining years, and are Mrs. M. M. Hill of Deepwater and Mrs. C. B. Snider of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Hill's tender, filial devotion is a constant blessing. Mr. and Mrs. Parks' granddaughter, Mrs. Kenneth Sell, at Leesville, has been like a daughter to them, being reared in their home after the death of her mother, one of the Parks' daughters. Another granddaughter, Mrs. George Beard, is also at Leesville; Mrs. Ted Frala, and Miss Aline Hill live near their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hill. A grandson, Roy Parks, lives with his uncle, Ray Parks, Leesville, and Roy's brother, Frank, is in Denver, Colo., where also are four other grandchildren.

They have given much time as well as money to their church, as Mrs. Parks taught a Sunday school class, when they lived at Calhoun, and since moving to Leesville, Mr. Parks served as deacon of the Christian church there and is now trustee. Each Sunday when possible for them, they attend services. They are fond of good literature and listening to their radio, especially enjoying sermons on the Sundays they remain at home.

Through his 83 years, Mr. Parks retains much of his activity, and has seen modern advancements in traveling methods, the automobile's speed as fast as they care for, and in mentioning the latter, Mr. Parks said, "Whiskey and cars don't mix!" The most degrading sight to him is an inebriate. About 1875, he, his brother, Harry, and a friend went to Denison, Texas, in a wagon which he had made during his spare moments. It took 30 days to travel the distance that is now covered in about half a day as Mr. Parks says, with present travel methods, he could eat supper in Clinton and breakfast in Denison.

Their home has a garden, and the two delight in raising their food, and each year express their love of flowers through painstaking care of them which seems no labor but a work of love. Mrs. Parks ever keeps active, her fingers busily embroidering, crocheting, or piecing quilts, ready to interweave their lives in the chosen pattern until it is finished.

bor or not, cars travel so fast. Then a neighbor was always ready to help in time of sickness, shared the joy and sorrow. When they visited, they spent the entire day, or two days, part of the family or a neighbor looking after the farming.

The first crop of small grain raised by Mr. Moyer was harvested by a cradle, a piece of hand machinery with a blade something like a scythe. Men followed and gathered the grain in bundles and tied it. Later the wheat reaper was made which cut the grain and left it in bundles, and the men following had only to tie them. Still later, the binder was invented and now combines do the entire job at one time, truly a far step in the memory of Mrs. Moyer.

Mr. Moyer, when married, possessed a team of oxen and two ponies and he and his brother, Will, each of whom owned 40 acres of adjoining land, broke the prairie with their oxen teams. Later they used horse teams. Oats and wheat were sown from a sack hung across the shoulders with straps, and a team followed with a harrow. Corn was planted with a machine, but when their eldest living child, Mrs. Mitchell, was large enough, it became her job to jerk the cord which allowed the corn to drop into the ground. Her father advised her to measure by the horses' steps—about three feet. If they wanted to check corn rows, the farmer went over the field the day before planting and marked it, then when he planted, the corn had to be dropped where the planter crossed the marks already made.

Small grain was threshed with horse power, using eight or ten horses hitched two abreast, or if needed, 12 horses, three abreast. Mr. Moyer kept a large flock of sheep and after shearing them, he and his family took a short vacation, loading the wool in wagons and driving to Warrensburg. They usually camped outside the town the first night, disposed of the wool next day and bought linsey cloth to make clothes.

Mrs. Moyer is skilled in spinning, using the spinning wheel brought from Virginia and for her trousseau, she and her mother made a pair of blankets. Mrs. Moyer herself spinning the material from which the blankets were made.

From their first 40 acres of land, the farm increased to 300 acres, of which over 100 acres is now farmed by Wade Mitchell. The farm house in which Mr. and Mrs. Wade Mitchell live was built by Mr. and Mrs. Moyer where they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary nearly 21 years ago.

Mrs. Moyer's insight into life is clear and keen, and her greatest interest is farming, as it has always been. Her wisdom has been gleaned from personal experience. God's Universe, Nature, is as wonderful and enjoyable as ever, for a life that has been lived as beautifully as hers, is still rich in meaning.

MARRIED 61 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parks, Leesville, Celebrated Anniversary in Spring — Both Are Active

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parks, Leesville, and Wayne Pruessner, a neighbor, who does his farming with two tractors, were in Clinton Saturday. The latter was on business and Mrs. Parks came to see her physician.

Over 61 years of wedded life together have brought a more beautiful companionship between Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parks, for they cherish one another dearly. This winter and spring, during Mrs. Parks' illness, her husband cared for her devotedly, assisted by their daughter, Mrs. Pete Hill, of Deepwater. For this reason, their anniversary, March 20, was passed quietly. With returning health, Mrs. Parks is able now to do her own housework, and Mr. Parks is evincing a noteworthy vigor in his activities.

This spring he has set out a young orchard; eight pear trees, one of which bloomed this year, four big red plum, six cherry and four peach trees, although the latter appear to be dying. He also put out 400 strawberry plants, including Dunlap and Everbearing, (the latter are still producing berries), 16 Boisenberry plants, and Concord grapes. The Boisenberry is considered to be an improvement over the Youngberry, introduced to horticulturists not long ago and considered by them to be far superior to either blackberries or dewberries. Mr. Parks had two rows of grapes produce 1,000 pounds of fruit last year. The grape prospect this year was ruined by high winds whipping off the tendrils upon which are the blooms, he said.

Mr. Parks is a splendid gardener and they have been eating fresh peas some time, and have potatoes large enough to use, in addition to other vegetables. Mr. Parks has a grist mill, but his health does not permit him to operate it.

Clinton holds many memories for Mr. Parks, for when he was operating a saw mill, he furnished a great deal of lumber for building purposes, including the Burrell hotel, located at the corner of Second and Franklin, where now is the Standard Oil service station operated by Paul Brown; and remembers the time he was supplying road lumber to Will Hall. Besides sawing lumber he did carpenter work, building a number of houses which he sold.

The most serious accident he experienced while operating his saw mill was when his left foot got into the saw and the little toe was almost sawed off. However, one of his assistants placed it back in place and he was taken to a physician. Now, if such an accident happened, the toe would be replaced properly, and soon be as good as ever, but at that time physicians were not able to re-connect severed nerve centers enough to be used.

One of the greatest dangers in sawing timber is the presence of nails, which can, in a split second of time, wreck the saw. Trees in yards are most dangerous, although those used in fence rows usually have plenty of nails. Mr. Parks had a customer take two fine cedar logs to be sawed, one of which he refused fearing nails as he knew the tree had grown in a fence row. The owner acknowledged Mr. Parks right after he split the log and found it full of nails, which made it only fit for fence posts.

CALVIN NEUENSCHWANDER KILLED BY TRUCK

Prominent Farmer South of Deepwater Died Instantly, being Struck by Producer's Truck —Helped Organize the Produce Company

(By the Deepwater Correspondent)

Life ended with tragic suddenness at 2:30 p. m. last Wednesday, June 15, for Calvin Neuenschwander, south of Deepwater, member of one of the Henry-St. Clair County line's most prominent families.

Mr. Neuenschwander, his wife and adopted daughter had started to Osceola, stopping at their mail box for their mail as they turned out of the country road from their house onto the highway. Presumably, Mr. Neuenschwander neither heard nor saw the Producer's Produce truck of Clinton, driven by James Swanagan, bearing down upon him as he stepped toward the mail box. The impact of the truck against his body apparently caused instant death.

The ironic part of the tragedy was the fact that much of Mr. Neuenschwander's life's energy had gone into making this produce company a success. He had been a member of the board of directors since the company began.

Mr. Neuenschwander, one of the most beloved and progressive residents in the community just north of Chloe, was well known for his active part in community affairs. His farming methods were far advanced, science playing an important part in his crop production, and his home was one of the most modern and attractive in the county. He was kindly and neighborly, possessing a legion of friends. His church membership was with the Valley Center church where he was most active. He held various offices in the church, also taught in the Sunday school.

Calvin Neuenschwander was born 69 years ago this coming July 4, at Vera Cruz, Ind., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neuenschwander,

G. V. ALLIS PASSES

G. V. Allis, long a respected and fine citizen of Coal, was called to his eternal rest at 1:30 Sunday afternoon, June 5, from his home at Coal where he had lived all of his married life. His illness was but of a week's duration bringing to a close years of gradually failing health, which he bore with calm resignation and Christian hope of rich reward.

Garland Valentine Allis, son of William Leonard and Elizabeth Eleanor Allis, was born February 14, 1884, at McCune, Kansas. He came to Climax Springs, Camden County, Missouri, with his parents as a lad of five years where he attended school and grew to young manhood.

March 3, 1911, Miss Vesta McGinness became his bride and they came to Coal, Mo., to make their home on the same farm where they continued to reside. Four children were given them, Raymond, of Idaho; Mrs. Eleanor Dickey of Kansas City, Mo., Johnny and Eunice of the home.

Mr. Allis was converted and became a member of the Good Hope Baptist church 20 years ago, living in Christ, a noble and pure Christian life. Material success rewarded his life's work and friends called him a good neighbor while his family gave him the devoted respect of an honored father. While he was never a vigorous man, his life was busy and full and he leaves his faithful wife and above mentioned children, one sister, Mrs. Nellie Nichols; two brothers, Everett Allis of Appleton City and Ray Allis of Clinton.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. J. Mustain at the Good Hope church at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday, and the former pastor, Rev. Dale Huff, now of Bolivar, who delivered the sermon. In the Sweet Bye and Bye, In That City and Does Jesus Care were sweetly sung by the choir and the body was laid in Englewood. Messrs. Roy, Ernest, Clarence and Woodson McGinness, John Eberting and Charlie Fowler were the pallbearers Wilkinson Funeral service was in charge.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP IN ART

Miss Roberta Stoneman of Clinton Awarded Free Year's Tuition to a Kansas City Art School

Miss Roberta Stoneman has just been awarded a $150 Vanderslice scholarship to the Kansas City Art Institute. Miss Stoneman has been given this award in consideration of the outstanding work she did during the past year in drawing, design, sculpture, and history of art.

Miss Stoneman's scholarship furnishes her full tuition for a year's study with Thomas Hart Benton, America's foremost mural painter and head of the department of painting and drawing in the Kansas City Art Institute.

Miss Stoneman will also study sculpture with Wallace W. Rosenbauer, head of the department of sculpture, and creator of many pieces of sculpture that have been purchased for permanent display in some of America's leading galleries including the William Rockhill Nelson Gallery of Art, Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Stoneman received her scholarship in competition with the more than 300 students from 17 states which form the student body of the Kansas City Art Institute.

H. H. PARKS DIED

Harry H. Parks, one of Henry County's oldest citizens, died the morning of June 14, 1938, at his home near Tightwad. His strength had been gradually declining the last six months, but Sunday he had attended the basket dinner and fish fry of his wife's family, enjoying it fully.

He was born July 20, 1857, at Calhoun, where he reached young manhood. December 31, 1885, he married Miss Jessie Slavens, a childhood playmate friend, who survives with their son, Ray, who owns and operates the Parks store at Tightwad; also daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Newt Pierce, near Tightwad. The grandchildren are Max, Pat and ValJean Logan and Pauline Parks. There are two brothers, William Parks at Leesville and James Parks of Oregon.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexius Guy Smith of Macon, Georgia, being one of Macon's most beautiful society girls. She graduated from Lanier High School in Macon, and from Mercer University, specializing in languages.

The blue waters of the Atlantic Ocean and the world famous International Airport of Pan-American Airways will make a beautiful and unusual background, and while the drone of huge clipper ships rival the soft melody of the Wedding March for the distinguished ceremony, Mr. Loft and Miss Smith will be wedded in the lovely palm-fringed patio adjoining the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Kopplin.

The newly married couple will take an extended honeymoon to South America via Pan-American Airways, going to Brazil, then to Argentina, where the bride has large holdings in the cattle business.

Neighboring the Kopplin home Casa Loco, a new house is being built, where Mr. and Mrs. Carl Loft will move upon their return to Miami in late October.

JAS. A. PARKS ADMITTED TO THE BAR ETERNAL

Highest Ideals and Traditions of Law Exemplified in His Life of Courageous, Clear Thinking —On State Bar Advisory and Regents Board

Family and friends of James A. Parks, who had been watching with deepest anxiety his balance between life and death the past two weeks, bowed before the inevitable at 6:45 a. m. Monday, September 5, and resigned him to his last long sleep.

He had not been well since April of this year, but in June started with Mrs. Parks for a visit to their daughter in Belmont, Mass. Upon reaching St. Louis while en route he entered Barnes Hospital, where two days later he underwent an operation. After a few weeks in the hospital he returned to his home hoping to regain his health. There many friends visited him and clients came with their business and legal matters and he had even been to the polls to cast his last vote in the Democratic primary August 2.

James A. Parks was one of Missouri's most prominent lawyers. At the time of his death and some years prior thereto he was a member of the State Bar Advisory Committee, to which position he was appointed by the Supreme Court of Missouri, and which was a signal honor. Serving with him were: Boyle G. Clark, general chairman, of Columbia; J. C. Grover of Kansas City, (who both visited him last week); J. D. James of Joplin and Grover C. Sibley of St. Louis. This committee passes on the eligibility of practicing lawyers and debars them for illegal or unethical practice, if occasion arises.

He was a member of the Board of Regents of Central Missouri State Teachers College at Warrensburg, to which position he was appointed by Governor Stark in 1937, and which was but another acknowledgment of his worth and ability.

A member of the Missouri Bar Association since September 10, 1906, Mr. Parks entered upon the active practice of law with his father, Peyton A. Parks, under the firm name of Parks & Son. In the spring of 1906, he had graduated and received his law degree from the University of Missouri at Columbia, having his A. B. degree from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. With the death of his beloved and influential father in 1922, their firm was dissolved. Since then Mr. Parks officed alone, with an extensive practice, not only at the local bar, but throughout the state.

Studious and industrious, highly educated and practical, honest and conscientious, learned and experienced in the law and in business, multitudes of people came to him with their affairs. Not alone those who had law suits to try or defend, but likewise those with business problems, seeking advice and assistance. He was honest and trustworthy. None ever erred in placing their confidence in Mr. Parks. To clients he gave his best thought, study and effort, together with a frank disclosure of the merits of their cause. Often has he been heard to remark, "I can't always tell a client what he would like to hear. I must tell him the truth. I must tell him the law, whether it is against him or in his favor." Mr. Parks exemplified the highest ideals and traditions of the law, loyal to his client, true to their cause, fair and considerate of opposing counsel, frank and honest with the courts before whom he practiced, he was recognized by bench and bar as an outstanding member of the legal profession

Not only was Mr. Parks prominent in legal circles, but he took an active part in civic, social and political affairs. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was never too busy to give his time to the work of the church. He was an active member of the B. P. O. E. and a Past Exalted Ruler of the lodge. He was one of the organizers of the Clem P. Dickinson post of the American Legion, having served at Camp Pike, Ark., during the World War, taking pride in his service to his country as part of his patriotic privilege. Since, he had been active in Legion affairs and served as historian for the local Post. He had also been a valued member of the Masonic order and Woodman lodge.

Mr. Parks was a Democrat and always took an active part in affairs political. He had spoken in most every school house and public meeting place in the county, at one time or another, supporting his party and urging its success.

He had always been interested in education and in addition to the college board upon which he was serving at the time of his death, he served as member of the School Board of the Clinton School District from 1919 to 1920 filling out the unexpired term of Clem P. Dickinson. In 1920 he was elected to the board until 1923 when he declined re-election but since had served them as attorney. In all worthwhile civic affairs, the advice and cooperation of Mr. Parks could be counted upon, and in many instances in times past, through his aid, defeat had turned to victory.

Often did he serve a poor client without remuneration if he thot the cause to be right. Helpful ever to the elderly and afflicted. Generous with his information to the community when important decisions in law were involved. Yet one of his truest claims to greatness is measured by the high regard his colored servants had for him, for a man's servant sees him at his best and worst—the actual man, and knows him as he is. So old Joe Nash, ill now himself, yet faithful to three generations of the Parks family, Ben Swindell and Maggie Watson, all colored, who had worked for him at office and home, knew and loved him, respected and admired him, guarded and watched the interests of "Mr. Jim" and suffer in his passing.

James A. Parks was active in the reorganization of the Henry County Building and Loan Association; he stood for community growth; he served his political party as county chairman, but as was the custom of his distinguished father, steadily refused elective office; the power of his fearless judgment and courage coupled with outspoken honesty wielded an influence as rare and significant as it was valued by innumerable people. Indeed his powers of mind and gift of leadership marked him among men as the mighty oak of the forest towers above lesser growth—a man whom an entire county mourns as one of its finest, most useful and needed citizens.

James Allen Parks was born Oct. 13, 1883, in Clinton, the only son of Peyton A. Parks and Mary E. Gathwright. His name combined those of both grandparents, honored pioneer settlers, James and Mary Allen Parks. His paternal great-grandfather had laid out and founded the city of Clinton, and thru generations he and his forebears have been associated with prominent members of the Missouri, Kentucky and Virginia bars.

Oct. 24, 1911, Mr. Parks and Miss Elizabeth Wallis were married. One daughter was given them, Mrs. Ralph Nattinger now of Belmont, Mass., who with her mother survive. Their companionship and mutual gifts of mind brought happiness and the void his passing leaves, is known but to those who loved him best. His was a genial, humor-loving mind and his quick wit and love of people made him rare company, and brought friends to him by the legion.

As Mr. Parks senior had often done, so his son found relaxation from the arduous duties and close application in his office at the club lake where he still owned the same cabin and enjoyed a bit of fishing and rest in the open; or yearly motor trips with his wife and daughter. Having had the most robust health, never knowing illness since early childhood, he worked with indefatigible energy, never sparing himself and had intolerence for illness even when it reached him in the last months.

Such a man he was and so he died, with force seemingly in his passing—and leaving in his going a vast vacant space which family, fellow members of the bar, friends or slight acquaintances see and wonder who or how it can be filled.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. D. Baker at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday at the Franklin Street Methodist Church. Mrs. Harry Gilbert, Miss Faye Luallin, Thornton Jennings and Rogger Ware sang. It Is Well With My Soul and Miss Sarah Margaret Gilbert was at the organ. She used a medley of hymns as a prelude and postlude.

Messrs. James S. Spangler, C. A. Calvird, Moad Davis, Clarence Jones, Mark Wilson, John Egger Barnett, C. H. Whitaker, Derry Kerr served as pallbearers.

Members of the Henry County Bar, and attorneys from adjoining counties attended the services in a body. Out of the county were: T. C. Owen, Charles Hackler, Arthur Thompson, of Warrensburg; Adolph Musser of Holden; L. M. Crouch, jr., and Wm. Anderson of Harrisonville; Herman Puhfahl of Bolivar; Boyle Clark and E. W. Jones of Columbia; J. D. James of Jefferson City; DeWitt Chastain of Butler; Judge D. E. Kennedy, Henry C. Saleveter, Eugene Sullivan, and Judge J. E. Smith of Sedalia; Frank and Edwin Brady, Vernon Frieze and E. R. Scott of Warsaw; Lee Crook, John Belisle, Charles Stratton, Dewey Thatch, Ralph, Waldo and Tom Johnson of Osceola, also all members of the State Bar Advisory committee to which he belonged were present and one of the largest assemblies of out-of-town friends in Clinton in many years: President and Mrs. G. W. Diemer, of C. M. S. T. C., and Will Johnson of Warrensburg; Mrs. Allen L. Porter and Mrs. W. E. Estes, nee Russell, daughters and childhood playmates,

CLINTON LOSES A LOVED AND NOBLE CHARACTER

Mrs. Emma Angle, Long a Part of Clinton's Life Passes—Her Character an Inspiration—Friendship Garden a Rare Monument—74 Years Old

The angel of death closed the eyelids of Mrs. Emma Angle in the peaceful sleep of oblivion at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, September 6. And never could Paradise be blest with a purer, more rarely beautiful spirit than hers, for her life had been crowned with the glory of goodness and the sweetness of peace, earned after long travail in life's difficult places—hard places that would have turned life bitter for many men and set their faces into the severe moulds of rebellion. But with her as all pure metal, tempering brought forth the finer quality and made her an instrument of godlike goodness, to help encourage, cheer and guide the many lives she touched.

For more than 30 years she lived in the unpretentious little three room white house at 308 South Fifth street and in truth the world beat a path to her door, for she was a master needle woman. And women came to her from the homes of means and influence to have her fashion clothes for them and for their children, lovely garments such as she never wore or desired yet into each she put her most careful skill and cut and stitched it with the loving care that would have gone into the lovely clothes she would have made for the little daughter God had given her for—just two brief years.

Those who have known her best look back over a long vista of years to see the frocks for graduation, baccalaureate, first dances, garden parties, college "trousseaus," tailored suits, bridal satin, lingerie . . . first maternity gowns —robes for those the grim reaper had cut down in the brilliant flush of youth or full, maturity and a great array of "just dresses," that meant her living. Yet with each gave a part of herself and to every patron sifted some of her brave philosophy of life. To her they returned, yes, for the garments she could create, but also for the sweet cheer, the homely good sense, the sound logic of her sage council, for she gave—gave always!

To the hum of her worn, old machine she worked out her problems and those of many a patron—she schooled more than one girl for whom she sewed in the need for modesty and the nicety of good taste, she urged deference to parents and endorsed their experienced judgment. She was sympathetic with their problems and understood the aura that enveloped love's young dream. All her life was filled with doing good, helping

His half brother, Jay Markle, between whom the closest fraternal bond existed, never left his bedside, and as the end drew near Mr. Wick asked especially for little Wanda Sue, whose happy presence he felt would cheer him and make his farewell easier. Her mother took her to the hospital Saturday evening and they remained with Mr. Markle and Mrs. Wick until the last.

George Grover Wick was born March 5, 1884, at Lexington, Ill. When he was but a small boy, his father died and Mrs. Wick and young George moved to Henry county, near Clinton, where his mother died in 1904.

He developed a skill with livestock and an understanding of farming that determined him in making agriculture and allied work, his life's occupation. Mr. Wick was recognized as an authority on all kinds of stock, and dealt in them largely. His opinions were sought by friends and neighbors and carefully considered when voiced. Business success crowned his life, the last 15 years of which he owned and conducted a produce business in Urich, widening his large circle of friends by his courteous, cheerful manner.

Mr. Wick was converted and united with the Urich Baptist church during a revival meeting held by Rev. J .F. Sherman, years ago, for whom he held a life long high esteem.

November 10, 1904, Miss Allie F. Scranton became his wife. They made their home at Urich, an important, integral part of community life.

Mr. Wick was a genial, pleasant man, to whom life was a full, fine flavored experience. Generous, kind, interested in people, he enjoyed his business associations, which were wide and varied, was a power in civic life where he lent a willing hand to any enterprise, as an efficient, learned, capable citizen.

Mr. Wick was a good sportsman, being a well-known baseball fan. In his youth he was considered one of the best players in the state and never lost his zest for the diamond, teams and the crowds—managing or umpiring games into the last season.

He is survived by his widow; half brother, Jay Markle, whom they reared in their home from boyhood until maturity, and for whom they had the deepest devotion; Luther Gardner, half brother, and two half sisters, Mrs. Lester Keyton and Mrs. Fay Tuttle of Los Angeles, Calif.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Jackson of Springfield, who was for many years at Urich, who used for his text, Revelations 21, at the Baptist church. E. A. Lindstrom, accompanied by his wife, sang, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," and "Sometime We'll Understand." James Crump, George Groh, Newt Shipman, W. E. Weidman, F. A. Swackhammer, George McCoy, served as pallbearers and in an honorary capacity: John Doll, Clarence Gieselman, Lester Britt, Everett Tschabrun, and Eddie Calton, who had worked for him, also John Wall, Mason Anderson, sr., Walter Menefee, Will and C. E. Sorter, Will Drake, Gene Hall, Arthur Mann, Art Oliphant, Rev. Hugh and Judge F. L. Sperry and Dr. Joseph Hampton. Those in charge of the flowers were Mesdames F. A. Swackhammer, Jas. Crump, Geo. Sriver, Ida McDonald, George Groh, Walter Goodman, George Ridge, Ed Billings, W. E. Clinton, Maude Hackney and Joe Garrison.

—Rev. and Mrs. A. N. Lindsay were in Kansas City Thursday and he returned Friday. Friday evening Rev. and Mrs. Lindsay went to Higginsville, Mo., where the Christian church congregation gave an elaborate farewell banquet for their son, Rev. John Marshall Lindsay, who, Sunday, September 11, preached his last sermon as their pastor, closing six years of excellent service to the Higginsville church. John Marshall has accepted a call to Lexington, as pastor of the Christian church there, one of the oldest congregations in the state and one of established wealth. He will also be chaplain for the Wentworth Military academy, living at the academy, and will act as contact man between the faculty and students. Gifted, talented, and with the qualities of hard work and studiousness, splendidly developed, he is just entering upon his greater and more far-reaching career.

J. A. PARKS' WILL FILED

Faithful Negro Servants Rewarded by Late Clinton Lawyer—Other Clintonians' Wills

The James A. Parks' will has been filed and most interesting were the bequests he made to the faithful colored servants, who have been employed either in his office or home. Joe Nash, who, for many years served his father, the late Peyton A. Parks, and also James A., received $100.00; Ben Swindell, $50.00; Margaret Watson, $40.00; Maude Wilson and Myrtle Wright, each $20.00; Frank Watson, Bernice Wilson, Bessie Avery, Beverly Reed, William Brady, $10.00 each, and Henry Carter and Everett Collins, $5.00 each.

He also left a bequest of $100 to be paid to the Clem P. Dickinson Post of the American Legion, and $100 to the Clinton Elks Club, both to be used as needed. He willed his cabin and contents at the Clinton Hunting and Fishing Club Lake to Chas. H. Whitaker, jr.; to his uncle, J. W. Gathright went $400 cash, to his cousin, Peyton VanNess, $300 cash; to his friend, Lindsey Whitworth, $100 in cash.

She became the wife of B. F. Sunday January 12, 1869, and hey made their home on a farm ear that of her mother until they noved to Calhoun 30 years ago. To this union seven children were born: George, of Windsor; Lizzie, who died in infancy; Lem, of Clin-on; Mrs. Emma Des Combs of Holden; Frank, of the home, who has lived with and cared for his mother the last five years; Jim, near Calhoun and Arch, of Seda-lia. She also leaves nine grand-children.

Mrs. Munday was a sturdy Chris-tian and a devout Baptist, having been converted and united with the Mt. Gilead Baptist Church in early life. She moved her mem-bership to Calhoun when she be-came a resident there. To her children she gave inherent Chris-tian training and from her they learned the lessons of service to God and man, honesty, industry, strength of character and love. No better lesson could sons and daugh-ters learn from their mother—and happy are the children who re-member them and model their lives accordingly.

So, rich in life's graces and with length of years, she closed her eyes to mortal scenes, happy in the promise of life everlasting after the day of resurrection.

Funeral services were held at the Calhoun Baptist Church Wed-nesday at 1:30 p. m. by her former pastor, Rev. R. I. Clemmings, of ElDorado Springs, assisted by her pastor, Rev. R. M. Webdell. A quartet, composed of Mrs. Clif Fewel, Miss Eleanor Bentz, C. S. Morrow and Rev. Long, sang three appropriate songs. Pallbearers were the three grandsons, Lloyd Munday of Clinton; Leslie and Lyle Des Combs of Holden; three nephews, T. W., E. F., and M. R. Munday. Well Known Deepwater Magis-trate Succumbs at Daughter's Home in Kansas City

(By Deepwater Correspondent)

Death came to C. C. Cobb, well known Deepwater resident for many years, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mae Rhoads, North Kansas City, Tuesday, March 19, 1940. He had been ill for some-time, and death came as a release from intense suffering.

Charles Cory Cobb was born November 26, 1863, near Quincy, Mo. He and Miss Ada C. Hudson were united in marriage July 31, 1890, lacking only a few months of celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary. They were given eight children, four of them dying in infancy. Claud Cobb, a son, preceded his father in death five years ago, leaving Mrs. Rhoads, Harold and Finis Cobb of Deep-water to comfort their mother. There are 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, also a sister, Mrs. Mae Phillips, of Cali-fornia.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb came to Deepwater 38 years ago last Fri-day, buying property there and rapidly making a place for them-selves. Mr. Cobb was employed by W. S. Dickey Clay Manufactur-ing Company over 30 years, always giving faithful, satisfactory serv-ices to his employers. His was a jolly disposition, a trait combin-ed with friendliness that made many lasting friends for him. Be-fore coming to Deepwater, he was justice of the peace in Benton County, holding this same position in Deepwater at the time of his death. He was also city assessor a few years ago. In his early manhood he taught school.

Mr. Cobb was an active worker in the Methodist Church of which he was a member. He was reg-ular in church attendance and faithful in doing Christian work.

Funeral services were held Fri-day at 2:00 p. m. at the Methodist Church, Rev. Ed Harriman in charge, assisted by Rev. Lemuel Miller. Burial was at Calhoun. Pallbearers were: G. W. Johnson, Wm. Queen, Durley Heard, Bill Smith, Ad Fahrner, W. T. Bailey.

63rd WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parks of Leesville quietly celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary at their home Wednesday, March 20, hav-ing attained a length of years to-gether that few men and women see. Mr. Parks, in his 87th year, still does a little work in his black-smithy at Leesville and is fondly called "Uncle Billy" by neighbors and friends. Last fall his beloved wife fell in the yard at their home as she hurried to close the gate, and fractured her pelvis, which accident has caused her activities to be restricted to a wheel chair. Mr. Parks, with the gentleness of love, cares for her and their days, rich in experiences together, pass uneventfully. Two of their seven children live to add interest and happiness to their lives, Mrs. M. M. Hill of Deepwater and Mrs. Claud Snider of Denver, Colo. A granddaughter, Mrs. Kenneth Sell, who lives near them, is almost like a daughter as they took her as a baby of 15 months to rear, at the death of her mother. There are nine other grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Parks was born October 14, 1856, in Ohio and there as a young lady met Mr. Parks, who was an engineer on what is today the Pennsylvania railroad. For a time after their marriage they made their home in Ohio, then came to Missouri and successfully lived in The Indian Territory, Texas and Colorado, before return-ing to Missouri in 1918 to make their home in East Henry County.

Mr. Parks was born near Cal-houn July 6, 1853, and a young boy at the time of the War Be-tween the States, vividly recalls various skirmishes and vivid scenes of fighting that indelibly impressed themselves on his child-ish mind. He was a farmer and carpenter by trade in Missouri and for some years operated a sawmill near his home.

Both he and Mrs. Parks were members of the Parks Chapel con-gregation, Universalists by denom-ination for many years, then be-came members of the Christian Church at Leesville until it was disorganized. They are fine and worthy citizens and friends to all.

BALDOCK-RENTCHLER

The marriage of Mrs. Mellie Bal-dock and Ben Rentchler, both of Clinton, will take place Thursday (this) evening, March 7, 1940, at the bride's apartment on the west side of the square. Rev. A. S. Ol-sen will perform the ceremony at eight o'clock in the presence of immediate relatives, who will in-clude Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rentchler, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rentchler of Clinton and Mrs. Naomi Dean and son, Fred, of Deepwater.

The bride and groom will live in Mr. Rentchler's home on East Franklin Street, which will be ready for their occupancy.

The bride is an expert homemak-er and for some time has been the capable assistant at Meierotto's Diner. The bridegroom is one of Clinton's well known retired busi-ness men, who is ever interested in Clinton's welfare.

Major Wm. J. Sappington was, perhaps, the worse married man on the ground. After having become the husband of four wives, 14 children blessing his home, he is still youthful, age 67.

That prince of good fellows, Wm. W. The sudden death of Miss Anna Parks, which occurred so unexpectedly last Sunday morning, sent a throb of sorrow through out the city. With only her mother and Dr. Bitts in attendance, without any premonitions, she passed suddenly into the spirit life. Her recovering had been hoped for, indeed had become an expected fact, and whether internal injuries, caused by inhalation of the flames, or blood poisoning, producing complete inflamation, were causes for her sudden death are not made known. The funeral was at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, amidst multitudes of sorrowing classmates, sympathizing friends and society companions. She was laid to final rest in Englewood. The Chautauqua Literary Circle, of which she was a member, attended in a body. The upper rooms of Franklin school were dismissed and large delegations of students from Baird College were present. The pulpit and altar were decorated with exquisite work of rare flowers, while numerous emblems were placed with loving hands upon the coffin. Anna A., youngest child of Judge James and Mrs. Mary Parks, was born in Clinton August 16th, 1869 and died Sunday, November 14, 1886. The youngest of five brothers and one sister, she was the beloved of the household and the first to be taken away. Judge Parks had lately competed a house in the suburbs of the city and moved into it but a short time before the terrible accident occurred, which caused her death. The rest of the children are married and settled in homes of their own and Anna was the life and joy of the new home, making her loss doubly sad.

fresh meat. Very early in the morning, this man, armed with a common ax, would come forth, knock down a steer, dress it and chop it up for his customers and have it on sale long before light. Messenger was a fast man. He walked fast and worked fast but he never got along fast in worldly matters. He built the frame house on the corner of Main and Green Streets, now occupied by J. W. Keil. He began it one Monday morning and the same week moved his family into it. Messenger died at Brownington a year or two since.

I have a distinct recollection of the lawyers found here in 1865, those who had passed thru the war and had come out pretty well scathed. If they did not wear the fine clothes which are common nowadays, they were, nevertheless, men of worth and ability. They were Robert Allen, Royal Birge, A. C. Avery, L. C. Martin and James Parks. Coming in next, bringing in a new element, were W. H. H. Wagoner, D. W. Alkire and, afterwards, as a man who has figured in our general government and gained some public notoriety, Robert Burdette.

Among these, Mr. Alkire was remarkable for his superior culture and moral worth. At this time, of course, the radicals held sway but nevertheless, Mr. Alkire was induced to let his name go on the opposition ticket. The consequence was that he was so badly beaten, that in supreme disgust and mortification, he left the town, never to return. I always held his private character in great admiration and had known him well. A.

Theo. J. Bolton--His Career of 18 Years in Clinton--To start from nothing work years and years for small wages, takes patience, more than a majority of the boys of today, we are sorry to say, can seem to find. It is a source of pleasure to see a man like Theo. J. Bolton, who has gone through, pulled from the bottom round up and well knows every inch of ground he has passed over. Clinton has a host of these men, including the well-known east side druggest.

Mr. Bolton tells us he came to Clinton through the advice of Rev. J. W. Riggins, now of Texas, a school mate, and accepted a position in the drug store of Thornton & Stone. He got $100 a year and board and room. In six months, becoming discouraged with the small salary, he decided to quit and go to work sawing wood. Mr. Stone learned of this and raised his wages to $40 a month. He worked at those wages for about three years, then received $1000 a year, with board, until the firm burned out in December, 1873.

Then Mr. Bolton and H. K. Davis bought the drug stock of Dr. R. Zener and established the firm of Bolton & Davis. Later, A. L. Armstrong took Mr. Davis' place; then, by diligent saving, Mr. Bolton bought Mr. Armstrong's half of the business. In 1883, Mr. Bolton bought the lot where he now does business and built the store two years later. It is called the Bolton Drug Store and Mr. Bolton says "I want it to be known as the Bolton Drug Store as long as it stands, no matter who the proprietor is."

The following telegram was received at this office yesterday morning, announcing this sad news: "Grandma Finks is dead. Funeral will be preached at one o'clock at Calhoun. T. D. Burch." She died at 2:30 Thursday afternoon, of pneumonia. Her life has been one of such sweet gentle purity that none knew her but to love and feel better for having been in her presence. She came with her husband, Mark Finks, at an early date from Madison county, Va. and located in old Franklin, across the river from Boonville, where they lived two years and lost one child, a daughter named Sallie; then they moved to the present old home place in Tebo township, where she lived for 40 years.

Mrs. Finks' maiden name was Graves and she was married the first time to Mr. Eddins, in Virginia, by whom she had one son, Frank, who died of pneumonia during the late war; one daughter, Lou, who was married to Mr. Parks and lived in Papinville, Bates county. Her death occurred in 1859. She was married to Mark Finks before coming to Missouri. He died in 1876. Their home was ever the most cheerful and hospitable in the whole neighborhood and country. There were 11 children by the last union, 9 now living. Thornton, the oldest, died in California; Fannie, wife of T. D. Burch, lives near Lewis Station; Sallie died in Howard county; Mary, wife of J. P. Legg, lives in Tebo. Fisher married and is living near the home place; Will lives with his family on the home place; Jim has a family and is in the stock business at Windsor; Tandy died in 1860; Jennie, who has been the comfort and companion to her mother, ministering to her slightest wants, will feel this loss most heavily. Mit and Eliza were twins and Mit lives with his family near the home place; Eliza is the wife of Dode Adamson, near Montrose. Grandma Finks united with the Baptist Church at Calhoun a few years ago, the same time some of her children and grandchildren were made members and baptized. She lived to see her children surrounded by their children and grandchildren, making one of the largest families in the county.

REMINISCENSES OF EARLY CLINTON

The first paper published in Clinton after the war was the Advocate, with the Seller Bros. as editors. This was followed by hardly less than a dozen other's (using as an authority that much abused book The History of Henry County). But two, the Advocate and Democrat, have swallowed up all the others, excepting only The Clinton Eye, which is now demonstrating its right to live.

The Advocate is remarkable for the number of people who have been employed as its editors or assistants. I think I can recall most of them: Sellers Bros., W. H. Lawrence, A. M. Palmer, W. N. Pickerell, I. N. Jones, Mrs. Kate Jones, W.H. and Richard David, Newton Bros., S.C. Davis and J. G. Boyle. Of all the editors and sub-editors, only one landed in the penitentiary.

The Democrat was started by the LaDues and issued first from the loft of the old brick owned by the Hon. Wm. Cock. It has had but a short list of editors: Joshua LaDue, W. H. Davis, Wm. Thornton and Lingle Bros.

The Clinton Enterprise was a good paper in its inception and in its make-up, it has never been excelled. Its editor was L. G. Schofield. Mr. Schofield came to Clinton as a traveling salesman and he was a faultlessly dressed man and wore a white hat. He bought property south of the Garth farm, on the road to Jackson's Mill, put up a neat cottage and moved into it. He seemed to be unfortunate. His house was burned down, he came into town and rented a home and again was burned out.

of Clinton, and how he used to impersonate "Dead broke, away from home", at our charity concerts, and with his "ri-tu, ri-tu, ri-tather-i-day" bring out the loudest applause. Verily, Uncle Jack has contributed much to amuse the Clinton public in days agone.

Died, November 30, 1891, at Harwell, Mrs. Mary Swearinger. She was buried at Norris. She was born in New York City in an orphan's home. Her father was captain of a ship and was lost at sea with the vessel he had in charge. When seven years old, a German family gave her a home. She was raised to womanhood in McDonough county, Ill. where she married J. V. Swearinger Jan. 1, 1865. They had eight children, five boys and three girls. One boy and a girl preceded her to a better land. She was sick about three weeks but bore her sufferings with patience. A short time before she died, she called her husband and children to her bedside and talked to them earnestly, asking them to do better. She was a woman of unusual intelligence and judgment and was liked by everyone. Her death is a severe blow to her family.

Monday Probate Judge Parks ordered estates in his hands placed in charge of present administrator Drach. Mr. Cheaney claims that he will make good the amount to his bondsmen by monthly remittances of $30 out of salary, from present position, $52 being received by bondsmen the first of the week. Considered an exemplary young man, highly esteemed, his malfeasance creats considerable comment. We are not advised as to what his bondsmen will do in the matter.

Peter Alfter will complete his new building on East Jefferson street about the first of the year. It will be one of the most commodious structures in the city and will be very convenient in every way. The upstairs has 16 rooms, half of which he will occupy as a residence, while the other half will be for rent, as will one elegant business room downstairs. The west room will be used to display his large assortment of buggys and carriages, and connected with the shop, makes it very hard. The building will cost Mr. Alfter about $5000 and is a credit to a town twice the size of Clinton.

Monday morning, the deaths of Casper Altringer and wife, which occurred within a few hours of each other, brought sadness to the hearts of those who knew them best. They had only been sick a short time but the Masters' call was obeyed and now they sleep that lowly and peaceful sleep in Bear Creek cemetery, where their remains were taken for burial Tuesday. Casper Altringer was born in Germany in 1825 and his wife in Hanover in 1832. They were married in Franklin in 1858 and have been living in the county about 20 years. Nine children were born to them, six now living.

The traveler on the road to Tebo is gladdened by the sight of the tidy, flower-surrounded home of Henry Parks, near Drake's Chapel. He and his wife commenced six years ago to see what could be done among the rocks and stumps. $700 in debt, but now free from that, they have made a good living and have a place yielding small fruits of every variety, with extensive market garden. This year he is trying one acre of oats and peas, which promises an abundant harvest and is a new mixture in this locality. Mr. Parks claims management and hustle is what it takes and says the young man of today stands as good a show to make his fortune as the youth of 20 years ago.

Dr. Joseph Hunter of Medora, Ill. is here on a visit with his sons, Ed and Harry Hunter. His son-in-law, Chas. Tietsort, came along with him. Before leaving home, the doctor had a few words with a tonsorial artist at his place and left his mustache. He looks like a deacon or a Methodist preacher and at a lunch counter this side of St. Louis, he took a cup of coffee; when he asked the charges, the clerk replied: "We never charge a minister!" And then, before he reached Clinton, he met a lady on the train who asked where he preached. This was too much for the doctor, but he politely told her his "church" was at Medora, Ill.

On Friday morning of last week, W. P. Parks, near Leesville, experienced a bereavement both shocking and sad. In hauling water, he was accompanied by his six-year-old son, Melvin, and an older brother, when a jolt of the wagon threw the boys to the ground. The wheels passed over Melvin and crushed the life out of the little fellow. his brother also received serious injuries. Melvin was one of the twins, the other a sister, and was an exceptionally bright child. The parents have the sympathies of friends and neighbors everywhere.

The Seventh-Day Adventists are holding their annual camp meeting and conference at the Well grounds. The church has about 1700 members in the state. The grounds are dotted with about 100 tents, all clean and in nice shape, making an inviting home-like appearance. These camp-meetings have always left a favorable impression upon the people in whatever community they have been held. The reason of their success is that the people, in the main, come together not merely for an outing but for a "closer walk with God." Rising bell at the camp is 5 a.m. and meetings are scheduled throughout the day, until the 20th.

Obituary--Mrs. William F. Covington, whose maiden name was Lewis, died at the home of her brother-in-law, Robert W. Covington, eight miles northwest of Clinton, November 6, 1896. She was the daughter of Robert and Lucy Lewis and was married to Wm. F. Covington in December, 1876. During the month of August, 1885, she was baptized into the fellowship of Huntingdale Baptist Church and carried the sunshine of Jesus in her soul. No mortal ever fought harder for life than she did, not that she was afraid to die, but because she had four sons to live for and be a comfort to and joy to her aged mother. She lived in hope of surmounting the disease, bearing the pain bravely, traveling to the mountains of the West, hoping to be benefited permanently that she might be of service. But when the fact was made known to her that there was no hope, she quietly and cheerfully submitted to the Lord's will. May the Lord care for her boys and lead them to care for Him, and then to fulfill mother's golden dreams and meet her in heaven.

Thanksgiving Day was appropriately observed at Huntingdale. About 10 a.m., the good people began to pour in until the parsonage was full to overflowing. The affair was a complete surprise to the pastor and his wife. Busy hands, prompted by cheery hearts, arranged tables in different rooms so that by high noon, the tables were fairly struggling to keep on their legs by reason of the vast amount of turkey, ham, chicken, eggs, stacks of white bread, pies and cakes. The old stagers and middle-aged stagers had the opportunity to making the first attack. Then came the popping of knives and forks, as they blindly came in collision. Such rattling of cups and saucers! Such shuffling of plates and spoons! Such ready hands to replenish the empty dishes when there was a clamourous call for more. By the middle of the afternoon, there was not a hungry mortal on the place. More than one-hundred persons had dined at the parsonage. One of the most radiant faces present was that of Squire Paul, who had a splendid chrysanthemum pinned on his coat. Late in the afternoon, all repaired to the church adjoining the parsonage, where the pastor conducted a Thanksgiving service.

Bird D. Parks, who lives 3 miles northeast of Calhoun, had in 12 acres of corn this year, which yielded him 35 bushels to the acre. He is 70 years old. If a man at that age could raise a good crop, there is no reason a young man could not do as well or better. There is only one way to raise good crops. Keep your ground well stirred, if it is dry, and the results will be miraculous. No man can farm in town, talking hard times.

The proposition of Senator Hohenschild for Missouri to spend 18 million dollars on a system of roads to connect att the county seats will not commend itself to the people of Missouri. What the producers and business men desire is a system that will give easy access to the nearest and best trading points and railroad stations. When a man desired to go long distances, from one county seat to another, he usually travels on a railroad anyway.

W.H. McCown, the young druggist at Brownington, has withdrawn from the firm of McCown & DeLaVergne and will look up a good location. Mac is a good one and will succeed wherever he goes. W.H. DeLa-Vergne will still have charge of the drug store at Brownington and will still continue to whoop up business and keep and eye on the "widders."

Died, on Sunday morning at 2:30, Miss Edith Scott Britts, youngest daughter of Dr. John H. and Mrs. Anna Britts. She fell quietly asleep on the bosom of her Master, perfectly trusting in the goodness of God. It had been quite confidently hoped that the end would not come so soon, that possibly spring or even summer might come ere her departure. But her father well knew and feared the sudden termination. Her mother was aroused a few moments before her death by her coughing and was ready to administer alleviating medicine but she told her mother she could not take it, that she was dying. Dr. Britts was immediately at her side and recognizeing that the end was near, summoned all the family and Miss Edith bade them a loving farewell.

Uncle John McGinnis and M.E. Green, both of near Coal, were in to view the Eye's bee hive last Monday. Green is said to be the champion hunter out there. One day last week he went out with a club 15 or 20 feet long and his dog and killed 16 rabbits by two o'clock. It's a good thing he didn't take his gun!

The Eye family is indebted to Mrs. Eunice Parks of Tebo for the finest home grown sausage we've seen west of the Mississippi. The donor's husband, long since deceased, was the first subscriber for The Eye. She has raised an interesting family and besides knowning how to make good sausage, she understands how to run a farm and makes it pay, too.

W.T. Beaty departed this life at the home of his son-in-law, J.A. Beaty, two and one-half miles southwest of Calhoun, December 6, 1897. Uncle Billy was born in Cumberland County, Ky. October 27, 1804 and grew to manhood on his father's farm. After attaining his majority, he entered life as a gunsmith and plied his vocation with vigor and determination.

In 1830, he went from Kentucky to Illinois. While there, he heard Lorenzo Dow preach an interesting sermon, standing in a wagon bed. In October of the same year, he went to Saline County, Mo. where he lived until 1833, when he moved to Henry. He worked here at the gunsmith trade and followed farming and stock raising. Married Feb. 25, 1836 to Sally Pinnell, who fell asleep in Jesus May 23, 1876. In 1846, he united with the M.E. Church South, and was always ready, willing, to give advice, especially to those who were out of Christ. He was so patient during his last few months of suffering; surely nothing but grace could make him uncomplainingly bow to the will of God. Oh, how he will be missed his home, but how sweet rest must be to him. Uncle Billy leaves three daughters, Mrs. T.S. Taylor, Mrs. J. Showalter and Mrs. J.A. Beaty; twelve grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

ever took work to his shop without taking it home with him, unless Uncle Mose was overrun with work. No man was turned away with work unfinished because he hadn't the money to pay. Uncle Moses had a strong constitution; whatever he undertook, he accomplished. Others have come and gone, but he was always at his post. A member of the Christian Church over 40 years; leaves wife, four sons and one sister. Remains interred at Tebo.

In the deep hours of the night, on July 28, 1898, at his home near Petersburg, while surrounded by his weeping family, Dixon Hanna, after several hours of unspeakable suffering, took leave of this life. Born in Green Brier County, West Virginia August 18, 1852. Moved to Johnson County with his parents in 1870, then to Shawnee township, Henry County, in 1873. Married in 1875 to Melissa Dunaway, who died one year later. In 1878, married Dora Webb. Became a member of the M. E. Church, Huntingdale charge, in 1876. Mrs. Hanna's illness was very brief. On July 27, he discontinued his labor in the field about 5 p.m. and, as the result of dysentry, "fell asleep" at 2 o'clock the following morning. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Elizabeth A. McMillan of Huntingdale, a wife and eight children, to mourn his loss. He served in the Confederate Army, as did his father, who fell mortally wounded during the engagement of Lynchburg in Virginia. As the evening shadows were gathering around the Carrsville Cemetery, Dixon Hanna was laid to rest in God's Acre.

Willie Stockton, who lived south of town, died on the 2nd with throat troubles. Born in Gentry County August 20, 1872. He has been afflicted for about six months and almost lost his voice. He didn't feel too well the morning he planned to leave on a trip to Kansas, tho he ate heartily of some tomatoes his mother had prepared especially for him. About two o'clock he took a pain in his side while bathing his feet and his mother laid him on the bed. He died in about an hour. He made a profession of religion and wanted to be baptized before making the trip. Leaves a loving mother and brother. Burial at Bethlehem.

Died August 6, 1898 at his home near Gaines, of bronchitis, Wm. H. Terrill. Born in Marion County, Mo. August 6, 1844 and was just 54 the day of his death. Married to Elizabeth Slavens of Bethlehem township about 31 years ago. United with Bethlehem Baptist Church in 1866 and was a regular communicant. He was a man entirely destitute of rashness of impetuousity and always weighed matters fairly before drawing conclusions. He seldom uttered a superfluous word. We were our soldier boys and made a host of friends. Boys calling at the Eye office were M. G. Parks, George Schiller, Walter Jones, Forest Sparks, P. J. Hentges, Lee Smith, George J. Hecker, Earl Hart, Ed Bundy, Henry Koulterman, Jake Schempp, Harry Bundy, Frank Cassidy, Nick Arens and A. H. Baker. The boys of Co. F came back amid ringing bells, steam whistles and booming anvils and were invited to partake of one of Hotel Livingston's elegant dinners. After the feast, Mayor Elliston delivered the welcome address, followed by Capt. Carter and C. A. Calvird.

The Baptist Ladies Supper and Art Entertainment was a complete success in every way. A very extensive collection of photographs, from friends throughout the city, were on display. Among the interesting views was one of the west side of the square, taken in 1868, when every building was a wooden structure, with two or three exceptions, one story.

There was a picture of the old two story frame school, near the site of the Adair livery barn. There was a picture of a log cabin dwelling on the lot now occupied by Bosserman & Ives, surrounded by large black locust trees. It dates back to '54 or earlier.

The Baptist Church at Gaines, known as the Stone Mission church, is, considering the rough winter, moving along nice with construction. There were eleven men with eight teams at work last Tuesday getting logs to the mill from which to saw out the frame. They say that one more day's work, with a few hands, will be required to secure the native lumber required. Mr. Hicklen, of Sweet Springs, Saline County, has generously deeded the church a lot 20 x 8 rods in size, near the Gaines school and Rev. J. Jones, the pastor, heads the list with a $25 subscription. This church is not yet three months old. It was organized in December last with 17 members; has received six since its organization.

Formal certificate of incorporation has been issued to the Missouri Telephone Co., with headquarters at Windsor, capital $65,000. There are 19 stockholders. Dr. J. J. Russell of Deepwater, who is now a prominent stockholder, was the originator of the line. The stockholders met in Walter Owen's office Saturday night and F. E. Means was elected president; W. W. White, first vice; G. W. Schweer, second five; business manager, Dr. J. J. Russell; secretary, M. P. Goodlett; treasurer, W. P. Huddle; attorney, Walter Owen.

Could Bryan and Stevenson have witnessed the ratification Tuesday night in their honor, by Clinton Democrats, they would have doubtless felt that it was a certain augury of victory in November. The Clinton square was thronged with men, women and children, a panorama of enthusiasm. The program opened at 7 p.m. with a national salute of 100 guns, full count, followed by a patriotic concert by the Clinton band, under the leadership of Prof. A. G. Ferguson. Then came a grand display of fireworks.

In the meantime, the circuit courtroom filled to overflowing. The room was gorgous with the national colors. At the entrance, stood the Honorable C. C. Dickinson, distributing copies of the National Democratic platform, his countenance beaming with the ardor he felt in the good cause. Then appeared a trio of sturdy Democrats bearing banners, the first of which contained the sentiments "The Constitution and the Flag, one and inseparable, now and forever", "The flag of the Republic forever, of an Empire never". The other two were portraits of Bryan and Stevenson. Then, escorted by Hon. P. A. Parks, came Judge DeArmond and the cheers grew deafening. After music by the band, Major H. W. Salmon was selected as chairman of the meeting. Hon. W. E. Owen then read the National Democratic platform, which received hearty applause. Then Judge DeArmond spoke over an hour, saying all who opposed the imperialistic tendency of the Republican administration could find a rallying point under the Democratic standard. The audience dispersed with three cheers for Bryan and Stevenson.

A new mail route is being contemplated from Calhoun to Fort Lyon, taking in Roseland Thrush and a new P.O. called Yolo, six miles southeast of here. Present postmaster is C. C. Maters, who carries as a sideline family groceries and ready-made clothing. C. C. was once in the grocery business and he knows just what the people want and how to treat them; he was also elected police judge at Calhoun and held the office with honor.

Mrs. Louisa Knoles, one of the pioneer mothers of Henry county, died at her home, half mile east of Alberts, July 13, with old age. Born in Indiana March 10, 1815 and had been a resident of this county 32 years, coming from Menard, Ill. She was married in Indiana to Eli M. Knoles, who preceded her to the better world nine years ago and together they sleep the last long sleep at Englewood. Six children were born to them, five living, all in Henry: Marion, Jesse, Nathan, Henderson, and Eli. All farms adjoin and they are well-to-do.

Boonville he just slept about eighteen hours to average up and prepare for another seige, but he got through his return trip without trouble. He said, on his return, that he never did want to shoot so bad in all his life, and if he had not the horse with him he would have climbed a tree and shot all night. He always did hate a wolf after that, he said, but it is rather doubtful if he had any love for them before. Several of the neighbors or settlers in Windsor and Tebo lost hogs and pigs from these animals, and Mr. Robert Avery reports that his father lost a three-year-old steer, not a mile from their house, in the winter of 1831–2. But if the wolves troubled them occasionally the settlers generally got even, for a good many wolves succumbed to the unerring aim of their rifles, and their skins made everything even in the long run. In fact, the wolves soon found out they were getting the worst of it and concluded to leave for a, to them, healthier clime.

The settlements in 1833 improved slowly. There were fewer immigrants arrived apparently than in the preceding year. There were no colonies, but several families arrived, forming new settlements in other parts of the county.

In the arrivals of 1832 should have been mentioned Abner Martin and his two sons, George W. and Baker Martin, George Bounds and Littlebery Kimsey, who all came that year and settled in Big Creek Township. To the same township came Thomas Swipe and the Haines family. The latter came in 1831, George W. Lake being appointed guardian of Christopher M. Haines in 1831. Robert Allen, the first elected sheriff of the county, came early in this year. William Goff, one of the first county judges, came in 1833, and at his house the first circuit court was held, and the second or August term of the county court, in the year 1835. He settled on fractional section 1. Mr. John and E. Goff, and other members of the family, now live on the old place, and near by. Mr. John Goff has a very retentive memory, and gave the writer much of the early history of the county and section where he lives. They live in Deer Creek Township, on section 7. John Legg came in 1833, as did Colby S. Stevenson, who settled in Tebo Township. James Fields came the same year, and he opened a store at Goff's in the spring of 1835. William Reynolds was among the arrivals of 1833.

The Parks settlement was started in 1833, being known as such from the fact that a large family of them came, nearly all from Lincoln County, Kentucky, and they all had families. Mr. John Parks, the father of William Parks, and others, settled on section 5, in township 40, range 24, or what is now Leesville Township, and his cabin was not far from the banks of Grand River. The family were scattered over the surrounding sections, being found on sections 5, 4, 3, 35, 34, 33, 27, and the Park family still owns from a half to three-quarters of all these sections, and others of the family are yet to be found in adjoining lots. Peyton Parks who platted the town of Clinton, and was its first commissioner, settled on section 23, Tebo Township, and this was the home of Judge James Parks, probate judge. B. D. Parks settled in Leesville Township, on section 33.

When Tebo Township was made by the county court of Lafayette County in 1832 it entirely disposed of Davis Township, organized in 1830, so far as related to Johnson, Henry and St. Clair Counties. Tebo Township, as before stated, from May, 1832, included the counties of Johnson, Henry and St. Clair north of the Osage River. At the May term, 1834, John Brummet, Cyrus P. Arbuckle and Joseph Dixon were appointed judges of the August election of that year. The two last named were residents of this county, the former of Johnson. At the same session of the Lafayette County Court a new township called Springfield Township was organized. The order reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the following bounds shall include a new township, to be called Springfield:

"Beginning where the new base line crosses the Lafayette and Saline County line; thence west along and with said line to the range line between ranges 26 and 27; thence south to the southern line of Lafayette County (the Osage River); thence east with said line to Saline County line; thence north to the place of beginning"

"Ordered, That Joseph Montgomery, Philip Cecil and James Anderson be appointed judges of election in Springfield Township for two years, the election to be held at the house of James Anderson."

According to this boundary all east of the range line between ranges 26 and 27 was Springfield Township, and west was Tebo. This was the division of the county when it was organized. Shawnee, Field Creek, Clinton and Fairview and the townships east all being Springfield. The election was held at Anderson's house, and Fielding A. Pinnell was the clerk of the election. He made or rather carried the returns to Lexington, and received $6.20 for the job. James McWilliams got $4.00 for taking the returns from Tebo Township.

It was at the August term of the Lafayette County Court, 1834, that William B. Price was appointed constable of Tebo Township. James McWilliams, then constable, and William Simpson went on his bond as sureties. The bond was for $800.

This was the last act of the Lafayette County Court in reference to this county. The following winter, on December 13, 1834, this territory, now Henry County, was declared an independent munic pal division of the state, under the name of Rives County. The organization of the county was the commencement of something more definite in regard to her future.

1835 TO 1840.

It was the opening of an era which was to bring her prosperity and progress, and to place her well toward the front among the municipal divisions or counties of the state, and the year 1834 brought her quite an influx of population to meet her new position as an independent division. The Cecils settled on section 35, in Springfield Township, as now bounded. They came in the spring of 1834. James Gladden and Henry D. Lewis on section 36, Tebo Township, in 1834. Benjamin L. Dunn came in 1834. William Brickley came the same year and located on section 29, Windsor Township, John Woodward on section 1, and William Perry on section 2, Windsor Township. Thomas B. Wallace and Benjamin F. Wallace came in 1835, in the fall, and opened a general store one mile north of Clinton, on section 35, Fields' Creek Township. Asaph W. Bates came a year later. James Anderson, Thomas Keeney, and Whit Mulholland settled in Bethlehem Township in 1836, and Maj. S. M. Peeler in 1837. John W. Jones, Bird D. Parks, Irwin Sisk, Andrew Sisk, Laban Pigg, section 32. Logan Palmer and John A. Pigg made Leesville Township their home in 1835 and 1836. M. Beedy on section 1, and Wheedon Majors, on section 12, Windsor Township, came also in 1836. W. R. Taylor and John Taylor located on sections 15 and 16, same township, in 1838. Asa Hendricks, John Scroggs and Rev. Joshua Page, of the Christian Church, made the choice of Bogard Township as their homes in 1837. Howell Lewis, in 1836, settled on section 9, Deer Creek Township. G. W. Squires and Nathan Arbuckle in 1836, and D. H. Pigg and James A. Tutt in 1838, the latter in Springfield Township and the former in Tebo. Richard Wall, of North Carolina, settled in Big Creek in 1839, and Mason C. Fewell on section 7, Tebo Township, from the same state, A. Potts in Walker Township, the same year, while John C. Stone located his ranch on the sparkling surface of Deepwater before the year 1840,

"The year of promised relief"

A SLIGHT RETROSPECT.

The first county court was held at Henry Avery's, on section 10, Tebo Township, on the 4th and 5th days of May, 1835. The next term of the county court was held at the cabin of William Goff, on fractional section 1, in the northeast corner of Deer Creek Township. The first circuit court was held at William Goff's in September, 1835, and Charles H. Allen, judge, was present, on the 23d day of September. Both of the supposed in those days to have been "God's own country," and not many at this day will deny that it is one of the fairest spots to be found on this green earth, and very few who chanced to find a home upon the bountiful soil of Henry County ever cared to leave it. And this is found in the lives of so many old settlers living to-day, and the graves and names of all those who pioneered the advance guard of Henry County's stalwart sons and graceful and handsome daughters.

Deeds of record for patents received began to come in more often in the year 1837. As above stated, the first deed of record was a trust deed upon personal property, and the following is a true copy:

Know all men by these presents that I, John Anderson, for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar in hand, paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hath bargained, sold and conveyed, and by these presents doth bargain, sell and convey unto George B. Woodson the following property, to wit: Three yoke of oxen, the lead oxen of the two yoke being red steers with white faces, and the third yoke being one a dark red and the other a black. The right and title to said property to the said Woodson I hereby warrant and forever defend.

The condition of the above conveyance is such that, whereas, the above named John Anderson is justly indebted to Hall & Fletcher in the sum of fifty-one dollars and sixty-two cents, by bond bearing date August 24, 1836, and payable twelve months after date, and the said Anderson being desirous to secure the above named Hall & Fletcher in the aforesaid sum, hereby conveys and transfers to the said Woodson the above mentioned property, in trust, nevertheless. The said Woodson, in case of the default on the part of the said Anderson, when required by said Hall & Fletcher, after said note becomes due, shall, after advertising the time and place of sale for thirty days previous, at three of the most public places in the County of Rives, proceed to sell to the highest bidder, for cash, the above property, or so much thereof as will be necessary to satisfy the debt aforesaid with interest, and pay over any balance, should any remain in the hands of the trustee, after satisfying the same, to the said Anderson. Now if the above named John Anderson shall well and truly pay and satisfy the above named Hall & Fletcher in the above mentioned debt as foresaid, then the above conveyance to be void, else, remain in full force and virtue.

WIDOW'S DOWER AND DISTRIBUTION OF SLAVES.

As years hence there may be a curiosity to know something of slaves and slave times, there is given below the distribution of the slaves of the estate of Reuben Parks, deceased, as an illustration of how slaves were generally held at the South. When the estate was unable to keep them the slaves generally were allowed to choose their master among those wishing to purchase. In the case above the slaves, thirteen in number, were divided among the family, the widow having first choice, the children following according to their ages, or if they preferred, to settle it without. These slaves were valued as follows: Big Jim, $450; Little Jim, $600; Kesiah, $500; Grey, $425; Henry, $325; Harriet, $400; Ben, $300; Tabitha $200; Laban $175; Jack, $100; Fanny $450; Judy (old), 000.

The widow, Mrs. Nancy Parks, had as her dower right one-third interest. She chose Grey, $425; Fanny $450, and Jack (the toddler) $100. She also took Judy and agreed to take care of her without charge. She was too old to work but she was given a good home the remainder of her life. The children selected, or divided the others among themselves, leaving just one for each of the children as his.

It was all settled satisfactory and the returns made to the court. When one got the best he paid the other heirs the difference. For instance, the amount each was to have at the slave's valuation after the mother took her share was $368.75. Now Byrd Parks drew Little Jim, $600, and he paid the difference over ($368.75) to the other heirs, who took, say Henry at $325, or Laban valued at $175. The commissioners who had charge returned the report as above and it was approved.

AN ORPHAN CARED FOR.

The following order appears of record at the August term, 1846, and shows how they took care of the orphans in those early days. It reads:

"Ordered that Elijah E. Gates, a poor child, without parents, guardian or estate, aged thirteen years on the 16th day of July, 1846, be bound to Asaph W. Bates until he shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, and thereupon the said Bates came into court and entered into an indenture that he would instruct and teach the said Gates in the mysteries of the trade of a blacksmith and such other employment as he may lawfully require of him, and that he will cause the said Gates to be taught to write and read and the ground rules of arithmetic, and at the expiration of the time of service will give him a new Bible, two new suits of clothes, to be worth $40, and $10 in the current money of the United States."

improved, it has other means of wealth in its extended coal fields and stone quarries. In the northeast part of the township coal underlies nearly all of it, and veins of excellent coal are known to exist in sections 8, 17 and 18, but it is probably not too much to say that one-third of the township is thus favored. Stone quarries of an excellent building stone crop out all over the township. A saw and grist mill is found on section 4 and a saw mill on section 1. Its principal resources are now corn and stock. Cattle and hogs are staple articles of production along with corn.

EARLY PIONEERS.

In the southern part of the township was the Parks' Settlement, which might be said to have been the first, but was so soon followed by Labon Pigg and others, that they, too, claim to be among the first. B. D. Parks settled on section 33, Labon Pigg on section 32, John A. Pigg, on section 21, but removed to section 20. Then John Parks, Reuben Parks, William Parks, Benjamin Putnam and Pattison Gordon, who settled on section 15, all came in 1835, and all settled in the south central and western portions of the township. For awhile Chesley Jones, who came in 1831 or 1832, Joseph Potter in 1833, but Chesley Jones lived in Springfield. Thomas Jones also lived in the township in 1836, and settled on section 26, but removed in 1837 to Springfield Township. John Anderson, in the fall of 1835, and that fall and winter came J. P. Turner, James Y. Parks, David Logan, William Witherspoon and Jesse Bunch. The last named, while given as coming that year, must have come in 1833 or 1834, but did not find just where he settled. There were quite a number came in 1837. John Potter settled on section 3. John Anderson on section 2, David Collins on section 10. Cornelius East, Thomas Stewart, F. and Drury Reaves and Andrew Sisk, were among the arrivals. When the year 1838 is reached, that old pioneer preacher, Rev. Daniel Briggs, came and settled on section 10, and organized the Tebo Church and was a man of mark, who left the impress of his strong, rugged nature upon the social and religious character of the people. Richard James, Sr., S. Peeler, James and John Carleton, are among those who located. Henry L. Pigg and James W. Pigg, who afterwards removed to the township, were born on section 25, in Tebo Township. David Collins also came in 1838. Thomas and Robert Briggs came with their father, Daniel W. R. Radford, James H. Renfro, and Talbert Kellsy completing the list.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION, LEESVILLE, JULY 4, 1876.

The following is taken from the address read at the centennial celebration at Leesville, July 4, 1876, giving an account of the early settlement of that township, and the quaint dresses worn and tools used in farmer and stock raiser, section 29, is a native of Bourbon County, Kentucky, and was born December 18, 1821. His father, Joseph Turner, a Virginian by birth, went to Kentucky when a young man and there married Susan Parks. John P. passed his younger days on the home farm, receiving his education at the Bourbon County Seminary where he acquired a fair education in the common English branches. In the spring of 1844 he came to Henry County, Missouri, and bought and entered 408 acres of land on Cedar Creek near Grand River. Mr. Turner was married in this county in the fall of 1844 to Miss Rosa J. Parks, a daughter of Reuben Parks, a pioneer settler of the county. There were eight children by this marriage, three of whom are living: Perez, John and Nancy B.; five are deceased. Mrs. Turner died in November, 1874. The captain was again married, this time in Indiana, March 8, 1877, to Mrs. Harriet E. Duggins, a daughter of R. W. Mullis. She is a native of Hancock County, Indiana, but was reared and educated in Fayette County. They have three children: Lela Myrtle, Ala Delle and Bonnie. Mr. Turner served during the war in the Enrolled Missouri Militia and was captain of a company. He was also appointed and acted as county judge but resigned the position in 1864 and was then appointed assessor and made the assessment of the county. He also was elected under the township orgaization, assessor of his township, all of which positions he has filled faithfully and impartially.

JUDGE VENLEMANS,

farmer and stock raiser, section 20, is recognized as being one of the prominent men in Leesville Township. Mr. Venlemans is a native of Belgium, and was born October 2, 1824, near the battle grounds of Waterloo. His father, John F. Venlemans and his mother also were born in that country, and in 1834 the family emigrated to the United States, locating first in Louisiana, where they lived about seven years. They then became residents of Cooper County, where John grew to manhood on the farm. He was married in that county in May, 1852, to Miss Sarah E. Randel, of Indiana, and a daughter of David Randel. Mr. and Mrs. Venlemans have five children: Teressa A., (wife of John D. Eliott); John D., who is a bookkeeper for a wholesale house in St. Joseph, Missouri; Margaret A., Sarah C., Stephen P. They lost four children, three in infancy and one, Laura Bell, (wife of Henry Eberding) who died in September, 1878, at the age of nineteen. After his marriage Mr. V. located on a farm in Moniteau County, which he had previously purchased and improved, but selling that place in 1854 he came to Henry County, when he bought land and improved the farm which

Dear Ms. Fulton:

This is in reply to your recent correspondence regarding genealogical records.

Births and deaths were not recorded in this office prior to 1910, therefore, we do not have information regarding records prior to that date. Any records available, before this time, must be obtained from the individual counties. We have no provision in this office for the checking of genealogical records elsewhere.

You might also write to Dr. Richard S. Brownlee, Director, The State Historical Society of Missouri, Corner of Hitt and Lowry Streets, Columbia, Missouri. This Society does not have early birth and death records as such; however, it is possible that they may be able to furnish you with the information you need from their resources.

Very truly yours,

The book I mentioned yesterday when we were at the library:

Park/e/s and Bunch on the Trail West (Gateway Press, reprint 1982 - orig. pub 1974) by Alice Crandall Park

The Park family in the book comes from Hunterdon Co. NJ to Rowan Co. NC to Madison and Estill Cos. KY.....among other places. The Bunch part of the book was the work of Geneva Roosevelt King (1913-1984). When Geneva died, her husband as she had requested, gave me all of her 40+ years of Bunch genealogy material. Geneva was a distant cousin of my husband. Geneva and Garland "Dock" King lived at Nowata. I used to correspond with Alice Park (born 1901) when she lived in Washington, DC.....have no idea when she died.
Be glad to look up any Park names you have.

I am trying to find information on my dad's side of the family which is PARKS. I know most of them are from Clinton and at one time my family owned Tightwad. I have some information from the Parks Cemetery and chapel, but I would like to go back farther. If anyone know's of any information, please e-mail. My great-grandfather was John Lunceford PARKS. Thank you.

Stanford, Lincoln County, KY----We know that John, Reuben, William and Peyton came to Henry Co. in early 1830's, 1833 and 1834. We know where they claimed land and where they are buried. Reuben gave a parcel for a church and cemetary and he was the second person buried there. Parks Chapel hes seen log cabin churches and churches burned down and chuches blown away by tornadoes, but still very much a part of the community. Susanna married Joseph Turner(born in Virginia)MAY 20, 1799 in KY. to which John P. Turner was born DEC 18, 1821 in Bourbon CO., KY
